ABOUT THE ANTI-SALOON LEAGUE SET FORTH IN DETAIL

By Rev. J. C. Jackson, D. D., Assistant National Superintendent of the League.

Rev. J. C. Jackson, D. D., assistant national superintendent of the Anti-Saloon league, occupied the pulpit at the First United Presbyterian church. The speaker stated that his thoughts were somewhat divided, as he had just received the news that two of his missionary friends had fallen in China. He referred to the saloon as the mightiest moral monster of the present time in Christendom at least. He said it had the world for its dwelling place, the flesh for its mother and the devil for its father, had no eyes to see, ears to hear, or heart to feel the ruin it caused. The help and sympathy that had been extended to the league in this state last year was commented upon by the speaker and he spoke of the fact that it now had 4,000 churches among its membership. The first department of the league, he said, was the agitation department, and unless the Christian churches of the nation agitated the matter they must die, speaking from a temperance standpoint.

The saloons in this state last year caused 3,000 idiotic persons, 5,000 insane, 10,000 convicts, 55,000 impoverished, while 2,000 died from the effects of alcoholism. He said the league had 18 people constantly employed in the agitation department holding meetings and last year 9,000 week night meetings were held and 2,000 Christian pulpits were occupied on Sundays.

He spoke of the fact that during the year the league had engaged in 60 township local option fights and had won in 54 of them. He said in the last two months at least 20 local option fights had been won. He also stated that the league had assisted 100 townships during the year in enforcing the law and giving the township inspector moral influence.

The second department of the league is that of Christian citizenship. The fact that the league is omnipartisan was commented upon by Mr. Jackson, and he stated that it cared nothing for the Republican, Democratic or any other party, but aimed to teach the voters to act independent of party on the saloon question. He said it was the duty of the voters to strike at the evil with their ballots, and that the saloon control of politics was the chief stronghold of Satan. He spoke of the fight the league waged against the brewers' candidate for lieutenant governor last year and said it had succeeded in defeating 11 out of 12 candidates for representatives who had been endorsed by the saloon keepers.

He then spoke of the local option bills that had been introduced in the house and said the league intended to continue right on until they were successful in their efforts to give the people of the state power to put the saloons out by their ballots. He spoke of the fact that 47,000 of the 80,000 Christian voters responded to their call last year, but they would not be satisfied until the 250,000 Christian voters of the state responded.

The last department of the league is that of law enforcement. The speaker stated that during the recent oil excitement at Scio the lawless element took possession of the town and the town officers appealed to the league for help. The league sent in several of their secret service men to obtain evidence, and their chief attorney, Wheeler, conducted the prosecutions. As a result of their labors six of the law breakers were arraigned before the judge, and five of them were given anywhere from $150 to $500, with jail attached, and the sixth one seeing what was in store for him jumped from the court room and made his escape. The last election held in Scio there was a fight on in regard to the town council and the league captured it. During the year Wheeler, the chief attorney of the league, has conducted 188 prosecutions and won 170 of them, while Assistant Attorney Calendar won 70 prosecutions, and the two gentlemen have assisted town prosecutors and solicitors in numerous cases, winning 60 of them. He spoke of the fact that they had held the saloons level and had turned the tide the other way and were gradually whittling down the saloons and every year the licenses became less. Last year he said the federal licenses had increased about 200, but this was caused by the better times and were mostly drug store licenses. During the existence of the league they have put 2,000 saloons out of existence, 300 towns are without open saloons, as a result of their efforts. He closed his remarks by stating: "It is our duty to push the battle to the death and to God in His own time will give us the victory if we are faithful."

BOY'S FALL INTO A CELLAR

Eight-Year-Old Wilsie Elliott May
Have Injured His Spine Saturday Evening.

SECTION HAND KNOCKED DOWN

Mrs. Ross Joseph, residing on Pleasant Heights, had a narrow escape from being seriously injured last evening in the West End.

Mrs. Joseph was on a crowded car coming from Wellsville, and when opposite Peake's store on Eighth street, the motorman stopped his car to allow her to get off, but he started when she had but one foot on the ground. She was thrown around the end of the car and fell on her back, holding in the air her 2-year-old baby, which escaped uninjured.

Mrs. Joseph was unconscious when picked up and was taken to the home of Mr. McElvoy near by, where medical aid was rendered. After about an hour she regained consciousness and was taken to her home on Pleasant Heights in the patrol.

UNABLE TO WALK.

Wilsie Elliott, Eight Years Old, May be Seriously Injured by
His Fall.

Wilsie, one of the 8-year-old twin sons of Mr. and Mrs. John Elliott, Calcutta road, met with quite a serious accident Saturday evening about 6 o'clock. He and several companions were playing in the unfinished house of Henry Werner near the child's home. The boy slipped and fell through the opening for the stairway into the basement of the building, a distance of eight or nine feet. He fell with his back on a pile of boards. Dr. Hobbs was called and attended to the injuries. It is believed that the child's spine is injured, as he is still unable to stand and may have received internal injuries.

SECOND CAR STRUCK HIM.

Section Hand Was Not Looking For
Another and Was Struck
and Stunned.

A laborer working on the grading of the street car line in the East End was struck by a car Saturday afternoon. A car had left the East End switch, the motorman intending to run to the power house. Before he reached there, however, he met the eastbound car and started his car back. The workmen stepped from the track to allow the car to pass and supposed it was the regular eastbound car. The other car, which followed close, struck him, knocking him down and severely stunning him.

FIRE CRACKERS.

Fourth of July is the Day to Celebrate
and People Must Remember It.

Mayor Davidson and Chief Thompson are determined that the small boys of the city shall not commence the celebration of the Fourth of July several weeks ahead and orders have been issued to the officers to arrest all offenders found firing fire crackers or toy pistols in the city limits. This action was caused by the numerous complaints filed against the small boys who began the celebration on Saturday night.

HAD HIS TROUBLES.

A Man Who Left the City Without
Paying His Grocery
Bill.

Saturday night an irate grocer met one of his customers who was about to leave town at the train. The fellow protested that he intended to stay here and even went so far as to kiss his wife goodbye. When the train pulled out he jumped aboard. So did the grocer, who went to Smith's Ferry with him trying to collect his bill. The passengers on the train became interested and one man wanted the grocer to whip the man. After the grocer had retired from the scene the passengers kept up a running fire of "Why don't you pay your grocery bill?" "Who robbed the grocer?" and other remarks of a like character until the fellow was compelled to leave the car.

A CURIOSITY.

Crosser's Office.

BURROUGHS CUT BEATTY'S THROAT

An Old Grudge Leads to a Slashing
Affray on West Market Late
Saturday Night.

ATTACKED WITHOUT A WORD

Burroughs Arrested and Held For
Court in the Sum of $500 by
Mayor Davidson.

TROUBLE WAS DUE TO LIQUOR

Frank Beatty, a painter, had his throat cut Saturday night by Sidney Burroughs, but luckily the razor Burroughs wielded was not very sharp and Beatty escaped with a painful cut in the fleshy part of the neck. A physician took three stitches in the wound and Beatty is able to be around the city today.

The trouble occurred Saturday night, but what it started about is a mystery. According to the story told by Beatty he was walking out West Market street when Burroughs called to him. He went back and without saying a word Burroughs slashed him with the razor. It was probably the result of an old feud, as Beatty acknowledged that Burroughs had it in for him. Officers Willis Davidson and Dawson placed Burroughs under arrest a short time after the cutting occurred and he was given a hearing before his honor yesterday upon a charge of cutting with intent to wound. He was bound over to court in the sum of $500. The trouble was due to liquor, as Burroughs was under the influence when he committed the deed.

WERE DISORDERLY.

A Motorman Put Four People Off a
Southside Car Late Saturday
Night.

Saturday night four men were disorderly on a street car returning home the Southside. When this end of the bridge was reached the motorman put one of the men off. At the corner of Walnut street he put the other three off and Chief Thompson gathered two of them in. He took them over to city hall, but released them, as he had no evidence against them.

FOR THE FUND.

Endeavors of the Methodist Protestant Church Donated to the Famine Fund.

The Christian Endeavor society of the Methodist Protestant church last evening donated $4.27 to the India famine fund. The money in connection with the fund from the Sunday school makes a total of $22.27 contributed. It was handed to the News Review and this afternoon was sent to the Christian Herald, New York city.

Telephone People's Picnic.

The ball game Saturday between the Murphy-Thompson and Laughlin No. 2 clubs would have been featureless had it not been for D. Wheatley, who gave three bases on balls in the third inning and then struck out the next three men, a record that would be hard to beat. Chambers also pitched good ball, but was given very ragged support. He made a three-base hit in the second and D. Wheatley made one in the seventh that were the longest hits of the season. The umpiring of Carey was also very ragged. Carey will always make mistakes until he moves around the diamond and follows the example of Umpire Davidson, who has not a kick registered against his decisions this season.

Before the game was over the Thompson players announced their intention of retiring from the league, giving as a reason that the Murphy end of their team desired that more of the Murphy pottery players should be put in the game. Gallagher, who has been playing a good second, was laid off and Dray put in his place. Dray struck out every time he was at bat. The Thompson players say there is no use trying to get a winning team under the circumstances, and they simply filled the date Saturday rather than to disappoint the Laughlin No. 2 team. The Thompson players who have quit are Allison, McShane, Tomlinson and Phillips; White, Chambers and Firth, the Sebring members of the club, have also quit. This is the best end of the club. It is thought the matter will be fixed up at the meeting of the league tonight and the team turned over to the Thompson players.

ROMANTIC WEDDING.

A Berry Picker's Peculiar But Forcible
Way of Putting the Question.

The Salem Herald is responsible for this tale:

Newton M. Ingledo, of Salem, employed south of the city on a berry farm, arrayed himself in his best togs and drove to the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Seinheiser, at Franklin Square, and invited his daughter, Miss Lydia, to accompany him to Lisbon, as he desired to pay his taxes.

On the way to the county seat he informed the young lady that he had made up his mind to get married and had chosen her for his bride. This prompt declaration almost took Miss Seinheiser's breath away, and a refusal was the consequence. But Newt did not intend to take "no" for an answer, and pleaded his case with all the fire of an ardent lover, and finally won the lady's consent. The license was procured from the smiling and affable probate judge, after which the happy couple proceeded to Leetonia and were joined in the holy bonds of wedlock by the pastor of the Methodist Episcopal church in the presence of many friends and acquaintances.

The little village of Franklin was much excited over the sudden departure of the maiden, and gathered in large numbers at the residence of her parents to await her return in order to extend their earnest congratulations.

The evening was spent in a pleasant manner until about midnight when the company dispersed and Newt with them, leaving his bride to dream of fairy lands and a bright future, while he returned to his lonely cot to meditate on life's uncertainties. Next morning he was found at his usual duties.

A CURIOSITY.

Land Patent Issued by President Madison Filed in Recorder's
Crosser's Office.

Lisbon, June 25.—(Special).—A curiosity in the shape of a land patent was filed in Recorder Crosser's office last Saturday. It was issued in 1816 and was signed by James Madison, president of the United States, and Josiah Meigs, land commissioner, and granted to Thomas Patterson 160 acres of land situated in the southwestern part of Center township. The instrument was filed for record by Isaac Patterson, a son of Thomas Patterson, the grantee.

PACKERS WON.

The Warehousemen Took Home a Badly Crippled Team from the Ball Game Saturday.

The packers of the Knowles, Taylor & Knowles won the ball game from the warehousemen Saturday afternoon by a score of 28 to 13. The game was a dandy. Umpire Joe Cordingly was hit in the stomach by a batted ball, Aley had his eye bruised and R. Rutledge had a finger badly split. They are all warehousemen. The packers escaped injury.

BURROUGHS CUT BEATTY'S THROAT

An Old Grudge Leads to a Slashing
Affray on West Market Late
Saturday Night.

ATTACKED WITHOUT A WORD

Burroughs Arrested and Held For
Court In the Sum of $500 by
Mayor Davidson.

TROUBLE WAS DUE TO LIQUOR

Frank Beatty, a painter, had his throat cut Saturday night by Sidney Burroughs, but luckily the razor Burroughs wielded was not very sharp and Beatty escaped with a painful cut in the fleshy part of the neck. A physician took three stitches in the wound and Beatty is able to be around the city today.

The trouble occurred Saturday night, but what it started about is a mystery. According to the story told by Beatty he was walking out West Market street when Burroughs called to him. He went back and without saying a word Burroughs slashed him with the razor. It was probably the result of an old feud, as Beatty acknowledged that Burroughs had it in for him. Officers Willis Davidson and Dawson placed Burroughs under arrest a short time after the cutting occurred and he was given a hearing before his honor yesterday upon a charge of cutting with intent to wound. He was bound over to court in the sum of $500. The trouble was due to liquor, as Burroughs was under the influence when he committed the deed.

WERE DISORDERLY.

A Motorman Put Four People Off a
Southside Car Late Saturday
Night.

Saturday night four men were disorderly on a street car returning home the Southside. When this end of the bridge was reached the motorman put one of the men off. At the corner of Walnut street he put the other three off and Chief Thompson gathered two of them in. He took them over to city hall, but released them, as he had no evidence against them.

FOR THE FUND.

Endeavors of the Methodist Protestant Church Donated to the Famine Fund.

The Christian Endeavor society of the Methodist Protestant church last evening donated $4.27 to the India famine fund. The money in connection with the fund from the Sunday school makes a total of $22.27 contributed. It was handed to the News Review and this afternoon was sent to the Christian Herald, New York city.

The ball game Saturday between the Murphy-Thompson and Laughlin No. 2 clubs would have been featureless had it not been for D. Wheatley, who gave three bases on balls in the third inning and then struck out the next three men, a record that would be hard to beat. Chambers also pitched good ball, but was given very ragged support. He made a three-base hit in the second and D. Wheatley made one in the seventh that were the longest hits of the season. The umpiring of Carey was also very ragged. Carey will always make mistakes until he moves around the diamond and follows the example of Umpire Davidson, who has not a kick registered against his decisions this season.

Before the game was over the Thompson players announced their intention of retiring from the league, giving as a reason that the Murphy end of their team desired that more of the Murphy pottery players should be put in the game. Gallagher, who has been playing a good second, was laid off and Dray put in his place. Dray struck out every time he was at bat. The Thompson players say there is no use trying to get a winning team under the circumstances, and they simply filled the date Saturday rather than to disappoint the Laughlin No. 2 team. The Thompson players who have quit are Allison, McShane, Tomlinson and Phillips; White, Chambers and Firth, the Sebring members of the club, have also quit. This is the best end of the club. It is thought the matter will be fixed up at the meeting of the league tonight and the team turned over to the Thompson players.

A Berry Picker's Peculiar But Forcible Way of Putting the Question.

The Salem Herald is responsible for this tale:

Newton M. Ingledo, of Salem, employed south of the city on a berry farm, arrayed himself in his best togs and drove to the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Seinheiser, at Franklin Square, and invited his daughter, Miss Lydia, to accompany him to Lisbon, as he desired to pay his taxes.

On the way to the county seat he informed the young lady that he had made up his mind to get married and had chosen her for his bride. This prompt declaration almost took Miss Seinheiser's breath away, and a refusal was the consequence. But Newt did not intend to take "no" for an answer, and pleaded his case with all the fire of an ardent lover, and finally won the lady's consent. The license was procured from the smiling and affable probate judge, after which the happy couple proceeded to Leetonia and were joined in the holy bonds of wedlock by the pastor of the Methodist Episcopal church in the presence of many friends and acquaintances.

The little village of Franklin was much excited over the sudden departure of the maiden, and gathered in large numbers at the residence of her parents to await her return in order to extend their earnest congratulations.

The evening was spent in a pleasant manner until about midnight when the company dispersed and Newt with them, leaving his bride to dream of fairy lands and a bright future, while he returned to his lonely cot to meditate on life's uncertainties. Next morning he was found at his usual duties.

CHAUTAUQUA CIRCLE.

CLOSE OF A MOST SUCCESSFUL
YEAR OF INTERESTING WORK.

Final Meeting Held at the Residence
of Mrs Monroe Patterson
Much Enjoyed.

The East Liverpool Chautauqua Literary and Scientific circle closed a very successful year's work Friday night. The meeting was held at the residence of Mrs. Monroe Patterson. The literary program began with an address by Mrs. W. A. Hobbs, president of the circle, who gave a resume of the year's work. Other papers were read as follows: "Socialism," Mrs. C. T. Hard; "Birds," Mrs. E. L. Trimmer; "Abraham Lincoln," Miss M. E. Hazlett. A unique review of American literature created considerable amusement. Refreshments were served during the rendering of the program. The whole affair was delightfully informal, and was greatly enjoyed by all present. Mrs. Gertrude G. Dix presided at the piano with grace and skill.

The papers presented were on subjects from the course of reading pursued by the circle during the year, and while comprehending all will give a fair idea of the scope of the work. The year just closed has been devoted almost entirely to America, including a series of articles by Prof. Edwin Erle Sparks, of the university of Chicago, treating of the territorial, political, social and educational expansion of the American people. These articles were intensely interesting.

The completion of the year's work finds the interest of the members unabated, and they are even now anticipating the renewal of the work with pleasure. The next meeting of the circle will be held on the first Friday of September.

Camp Ground Notes.

Yesterday afternoon it rained hard at the grounds, but there was not a drop of rain in the city.

VERY BAD WORK.

When the postmasters of Uncle Sam dare to hold mail in their offices at the instigation of the liquor league, when said mail is plainly and legibly directed to citizens of this great nation, things have reached a pretty pass, and the strong hand of the law should so punish such postmasters as to make them weary of such vile and dishonest work. The great fair minded American public will not stand such law breaking, and the head of the anti-saloon movement can rejoice in the fact that such measures as these recreant postmasters have resorted to are daily making hundreds of friends and coworkers for the Anti-Saloon league.

COUNCIL'S POWER.

The power of a councilmanic body is great. The council has the power to bar the saloon from this city at any time—at any hour. The people have no legal right to bar it out by ballot, and the councilmen of East Liverpool know this statement to be a fact. In case the present council should grant the people the right to ballot as to whether the saloon should go or stay, and nine-tenths of the people should vote that the saloon must go, council could laugh the wish of this grand majority to scorn and permit the saloon to stay and do business as usual. "But we want to know the sentiment of the people now," say one or two members of council, "and we will then ratify the decision of the people." What assurance have we that we could have a fair ballot? There would be no punishment under the law, at such an election, for repeaters and illegal voters, and every intelligent man in this city knows that all kinds of skullduggery and rascality would be indulged in by the unprincipled liquor element in case of such an election being held. Let our present council take the bull by the horns, quit themselves like brave and true and fearless men, and, by their vote in open council, scotch the rum devil and drive the saloon from our midst. Had the Clark bill won out then the people could have driven out the saloons by ballot; now, the power rests solely in our council. What will the harvest be? The people of this city have decided, on three separate occasions, that the saloon should be forced to leave East Liverpool. One notable occasion of this kind occurred a few years since, and council overrode the people. It must not so occur again.

DEVIL'S MONEY.

You can guess the meaning of this heading without the slightest doubt or hesitation. The government receives devil's money from the liquor traffic of this nation. Every dollar of this money is accursed currency, direct from the hand of the evil one. And this is not the language of a fanatic. It is the expression of a very plain, comprehensive, common sense truth. We base the thought on the truism that the liquor traffic and the saloon are evils of the most pronounced character—so pronounced, indeed, that the same law which permits them to exist, is forced to place all manner of restrictions around and about them. Then, in the name of common sense, how comes it that this great nation, "by the people, of the people and for the people" dares to secure or take revenue from an accursed, debasing, damnable evil? And, in the name of God-given intelligence, how dare this great and grand government engage in such a financial farce and term it a revenue producer? Its true name is cormorant, or revenue destroyer. Statistics, plain facts and figures, indisputable and unanswerable, have demonstrated, over and over, time and again, until the story has been worn threadbare, that for every dollar of revenue received by the government from the saloon and liquor traffic, that same government pays out twenty dollars in the covering up and correction of crime and disorder produced directly by the liquor traffic and saloon. Such a financial transaction in the business world would result in the principals being either laughed out of the business world or placed in an insane asylum. In the name of God and humanity let us see to it that this great land of ours shall refuse to receive so-called revenue from the hands of devils, existing either in hades or upon this earth. Let us see to it that no such accursed money goes into the erection of our public school buildings, the repairing of our thoroughfares or the erection of government buildings.

HEARTILY FAVORS IT.

Editor of the Columbiana Independent
Strongly Boosts the Bicycle
Sidepath Proposal.

Petitions asking Judge Boone for the appointment of a side path commission have been forwarded to the county seat, and he has signified his willingness to comply with the people's wishes. The Independent is heartily in favor of taxing bicycles for the construction of paths. The editor rides a wheel, and he would be more than willing to do his share toward paying for such improvements, and we believe every other wheelman in Columbiana county would be willing to do the same thing. The roads have been exceptionally bad this spring, and if they cannot be made fit for riding, the bicyclists should have a road of their own. There are enough bicycles in Columbiana county if taxed one dollar each, to build good paths along most of the principal roads, and keep them in excellent condition. Good, smooth paths at the roadside would open up increased avenues of usefulness for the bicycle.

Liberally.

It was children's day at the Methodist Protestant church on Sunday, and the youngsters did a noble thing by contributing the snug sum of $18 to the India famine fund. The money was left at the News Review office today by Mrs. Poland, and was at once forwarded to the Christian Herald, New York city.

Columbiana Independent.
Columbiana people were rather startled Monday evening to hear the whistle at the shaft continue to blow for about 15 minutes. ## HELD UP.

Law Students Who Tried to Do the Examiners Were Fooled at Every Turn.

Columbus, June 25—Clerk Si Allen, of the supreme court, has mailed certificates of admission to the bar to those who passed the last examination, with the exception of seven that are retained on the order of the court pending a more thorough investigation of the charges that seven aspirants had formed a trust to filch and sell the printed lists of questions in advance of the examination.

A rumor backed by several suspicious circumstances credits three members of the trust to Ada and the other four to State University. The plan was to have an agent visit the printing shop and secure the lists. It was assumed that the printer would sell out for $500, and the imprudent youngsters who took the bait are said to have paid $40 each as an admission fee. It is said that about 25 customers had been secured. The secret agent visited Cleveland, Newark and Akron in an endeavor to locate the printing office, and was not successful for the sufficient reason that the lists were printed in Columbus, and Mr. E. B. Dillon, a member of the examining committee "sat up" with the printers all night and then saw the type distributed.

Failing to secure the actual lists, the trust foisted some old ones on the creditors. There is a manifest disposition on the part of the court and committee to punish the offenders.

TWO GO-AS-YOU PLEASE BATTLES

Keep the Police Busy Sunday Afternoon and Evening and Two Fighters

WERE PROMPTLY LOCKED UP

The Other Two Gave the Force a Lively Up Hill Chase and Finally Got Away.

NEWS OF THE POLICE COURT

William Mercer and James Riley had a go-as-you-please near the ice plant last evening and disturbed the peace and good order of that neighborhood by a battle with their fists. Officer Mahony ran in Mercer and Riley will be arrested. They will be taught to spend their Sundays in a better manner in the future.

Hughey Martin filled up with the stuff that makes life and home miserable and going to his home on Third street he proceeded to make his home anything but a palace for the inmates to live in. Chief Thompson arrived on the scene and Martin was taken to the city jail to repent and learn that if he will get drunk he must not annoy other people.

S. Smith filled up with bad whisky on Saturday night and went to sleep near the freight station. Davidson and Aufderheide arrested him and he was given $5.60 by Mayor Davidson. He put up security and was released.

Last evening the police department received a telephone message stating that a fight was in progress on Thompson hill. Chief Thompson and Officer Davidson went to the scene at once and found a large crowd and two men having a scrap. The men who were fighting ran when they saw the officers and a chase ensued. Thompson and Davidson chased up over hills, down hollows and along streets until Avondale street was reached, but the men had too big a start. When Avondale street was reached Officers Morris and Aufderheide took up the chase and followed the men to Trentvale street, where they escaped. It was a fine relay, but the scrappers had too big a start on the officers.

TRENTON KILNMEN ONCE MORE OUT

Seven of Them at the Crescent Pottery Have Struck Work For Higher Wages.

BOTH SIDES OF THE TROUBLE

Hopes That the Difficulty May Be Satisfactorily Settled Before Long.

SOME TESTING THE KILNS

Trenton Times.

Trenton, June 23.—A kilnmen's strike that may be settled without any trouble is that of seven bisque kilnmen at the Crescent pottery, who have refused to work because of dissatisfaction among them over the amount of wages they are receiving.

The trouble has been presented to the potter's association and a meeting of the men has been called to take action on it when some kind of an agreement will be arrived at.

The number of bisque kilnmen employed at the Crescent pottery is only eleven when the plant is in full operation. At present there is work for only seven. For several weeks past the seven employed have been in a state of dissatisfaction at the pay they have been receiving, although the pottery claims to pay the same wages as the other potteries pay.

There have been a great many changes among the kilnmen, too, old ones leaving and new ones coming all the time. The kilnmen say that this was done because of the low wages paid, while the proprietors say the men were trying a game of "freeze out."

The proprietors also say that the men have not made any formal demand upon them, but have just expressed their dissatisfaction in these ways. The kilnmen are paid by piece work, and the amount of money they can earn depends upon many things—the condition of the kilns as well as the skill of the potter or kilnmen.

The superintendent of the works was seen this morning and said there would be no trouble after the meeting was held. Among the men it has been said that between 50 and 75 kilnmen have been working for the Crescent pottery at different times during the past few weeks, but have quit owing to the unsatisfactory state of the wages. This, the superintendent said this morning, was not true. Some changes have been made, but they were, in many instances, caused by the action of the firm itself, who, considering some of the men incompetent, had discharged them.

Why all the kilnmen are not out is explained by Vice President of the Potters' association Rhead, who says that those who are still at work are remaining only to make a good test of the kilns, and see whether the mens' claim for more wages is a just one or not.

HOW TO MEASURE A KILN.

For the benefit of those in the trade who are unable to find the cubic measurement of kilns the Commoner and Glassworker submits the following from a prominent kilnman's day book.

Diameter.	Height at Shoulder.	Height, well hole to crown hole.	Number Cubic feet in kiln.
17 feet.	17 feet 5 inches.	20 feet 5 inches.	4292 46-100
17 feet.	16 feet 4 inches.	19 feet 8 inches.	4085
17 feet.	15 feet 2 inches.	17 feet 10 inches.	3745
15 feet 6 in.	16 feet 4 inches.	20 feet 8 inches.	3492
15 feet 2 in.	16 feet 4 inches.	18 feet 8 inches.	3337

To find the number of days each kiln contains divide the cubic feet by 162 for gloss and 212 for bisque.

We give the above examples because kilns of the capacity of those mentioned can be found in every locality.

WEDDING BELLS.

Bride and Bridegroom Are Earnest Workers Against the Vicious Saloon.

Rev. Purley Baker, state superintendent of the Anti-Saloon league, united in marriage Gilbert J. Raynor, assistant state superintendent of the Anti-Saloon league, and Miss Ada Whetzel, of Columbus, Ohio. The happy couple, accompanied by Rev. Baker, left for Long Island on the early train this morning, for a three weeks' pleasure trip. Rev. Baker has been at work incessantly for the past four years in the earnest battle against the saloon and the liquor traffic, and right nobly has he earned his vacation.

Gilbert J. Raynor is an earnest and indefatigable worker in favor of the right and the truth. He has made a host of friends throughout the Buckeye state in his intelligent and fearless advocacy of the Anti-Saloon league and that which it represents. He has been assaulted and stoned by the element which represents the saloon, and has made friends by the thousand in consequence, men who are slowly but surely awaking to the fact that the saloon is an unmitigated curse and evil to any community. Raynor can be ranked with the brainiest leaders and workers of the Anti-Saloon league. He made many friends in East Liverpool during his brief visits this point.

Miss Ada Whetzel has been at the head of the mailing department of the Anti-Saloon league, and has been a very faithful and efficient worker.

The News Review, in common with a host of friends of this model couple, wish them God's blessing and all the happiness that mortals are heir to. We predict a grand career of usefulness for Gilbert J. Raynor.

CHRISTIAN CHURCH.

Good Was Accomplished on Sunday in Connection With the Anti-Saloon Movement.

State Superintendent Baker delivered an intensely interesting address at the Christian church on Sunday morning. He asserted that the anti-saloon movement is making greater and grander strides in the way of success than any reform movement made mention of in history. He went on to show how the Haskell bill had but 36 votes in the lower house, and never reached the senate. Then followed the Harris bill with 50 votes, likewise failing to reach the senate. Then came the Clark bill, with 59 votes in the lower house, defeated by only one vote in the senate. "Surely," said the speaker, "we have no cause to be downhearted or despondent, but have the right to push forward, nothing daunted, to the consummation, under God's blessing, of a great and glorious victory. You are being educated to a better and a higher standard, thank God. The saloon has been made, under orders, as clean and as near Christian as such an accursed feature can be made; and yet it is more abhorrent to the great masses than ever before in its history. It is a marked thing and must go. An uplifted and enlightened and Christianized public sentiment has declared against the awful curse, and the church has decided to rise en masse against this monstrous evil of the century."

RUB UP YOUR RUBBER.

A Peculiar Manner by Which to Raise Money for the Sufferers in India.

Take your old and useless rubber hose, old rubber shoes, rubber goods of any kind or character, to the Methodist Protestant church on Wednesday night next, and add them to the common rubber fund, after which they will be sold and the proceeds will be applied to the relief fund to be sent to the starving people in India. It is a novel feature, and should win success.

CENSUS INCREASED.

The Fairmount Children's Home Inmates Added 174 Names to the List.

The census enumerators added 174 names to their list when they arrived at Fairmount Children's home, but the compiling of the necessary information caused hard work on the part of Superintendent Southworth and several assistants. Several days were spent in going over records and using other means of gleanings the necessary statistics concerning the population of this well known institution.

Ohio's Health.

The June number of the Ohio Sanitary Bulletin, published under the direction of the state board of health, shows the number of cases of smallpox reported to the board from Jan. 1 to June 1 was 1,289, of which 39 developed in Columbus. There were in all 16 deaths from the disease. The report of cases of infectious diseases for the nine weeks ending June 2, is as follows: Membranous croup and diphtheria, 166 cases, 40 deaths; scarlet fever, 558 cases, 13 deaths; typhoid fever, 217 cases, 81 deaths; whooping cough, 132 cases, 13 deaths; measles, 1,564 cases, 14 deaths. Sixty-five municipalities, with an aggregate population of 873,186, reported to the board during the period named.

Lisbon's Woman in White.

Lisbon Patriot. There is some excitement on West Washington street over the appearance of a woman dressed in white who after nightfall is seen to be wandering around and peeping into windows. This mysterious object has been seen by reliable persons on several occasions, but who she is and what she is after has not been discovered. Some are of the opinion that it is not a woman but a man dressed in woman's clothes; others that it is an insane person. One thing sure it is not a ghost as some believe, but something very much alive.

No Clue.

As yet no clue has been obtained as to who the robbers were who perpetrated the robbery at Butler & Howe's dry goods store at Wellsville on Wednesday night.

AMERICANS KILLED.

Seven Wounded In Ambuscade Near Tien Tsin.

REMEY WAS ORDERED TO TAKU

The American Admiral Told by Cable to Offer to MacArthur to Convey Any Troops Possible on the Brooklyn—Big Military Preparations.

WASHINGTON, June 25.—The navy department issued the following bulletin: "A telegram from Admiral Kempff, dated Che Foo, June 24, says: 'In ambuscade near Tien Tsin, on the 21st, four of Waller's command killed and seven wounded. Names will be furnished as soon as received. Force of 2,000 going to relieve Tien Tsin today.'

(Signed) "KEMPFF." "The secretary of the navy ordered Admiral Remy to go with the Brooklyn to Taku and to tender to General MacArthur conveyance of any army troops which the Brooklyn can carry."

Admiral Kempff's report that four Americans were killed and seven wounded in the ambuscade of Waller's force caused the gravest concern among officials, but the chief fear was as to the outcome of the second attack, which the admiral reported would begin Sunday. This is little short of the dimensions of a battle, and its results may be decisive, not only to the immediate force employed, but in determining the fate of the legations and foreign settlements at Tien Tsin, and also whether the issue is or is not to be war with China.

Word reached the navy department that the battleship Oregon got away from Hongkong Saturday night, bound for Taku. This was about two days ahead of her expected start. She took on 164 sailors and marines, brought to Hongkong by the Zafiro. If she makes her record time she will be at Taku about the same time that the Brooklyn arrives from Manila.

The war branch of the government is preparing for any eventuality that may arise out of the Chinese situation. As stated by one of the highest officers of the army the scale of preparation is of a magnitude which would both interest and surprise the public. But, he added, the information would be of even greater interest and service to any foreign foe which the United States may be called upon to face within the next few weeks or months, and for that reason there is no purpose to make public the complete preparations making to meet whatever issue arises. All that the officials will say is that both the army and the navy, if the occasion arises, will give a good account of themselves.

MILLIONS MAY ARISE. THROUGHOUT CHINA.

Northern China Aflame and Some Southerners Become Excited—Over 6,000 Chinamen Killed.

LONDON, June 25.—The position of the international forces in the section of Northern China, where 10,000 men are striving to keep a footing and to succor the legations in Peking, appears to increase in peril with every fresh dispatch. Peking has not been heard from direct for 14 days. The last dispatch was one imploring aid. Admiral Seymour's column of 2,000 was last heard from 13 days ago. At that time it was surrounded midway between Peking and Tien Tsin. Possibly now it has reached Peking.

The 3,000 internationals at Tien Tsin were hard pressed and fighting for their lives on Thursday and a relieving force of less than a thousand had been beaten back to Taku Friday. Observers on the spot think that 100,000 men would not be too many to grasp China firmly.

A dispatch from Shanghai dated Sunday, at 4 p. m., said that official Japanese telegrams confirmed the reports of a defeat of the allied forces at Tien Tsin. The foreigners there were placed in a most desperate situation. The Russian admiral, Hillebrandt, Saturday sent a mixed force of 4,000 from Taku to attempt the relief of Tien Tsin. Nearly half of the force consisted of Japanese. The remainder was made up of contingents representing the other nations.

The guns of the Chinese around Tien Tsin were superior to anything the defending European forces had or were likely to have for some time.

The bombardment of Tien Tsin continued Friday. Bomb shelters were hastily erected by the foreign troops, largely constructed of wetted piece goods. The food supplies were insufficient and the continued shelling is reported to be telling terribly.

Among those killed of the release force Friday was the commander of H. M. S. Barleux. The foreign casualties were 300.

The Chinese troops in the province of Chi-Li were said to include about 60,000 auxiliaries, who have been drilled by Russian and German officers.

Captain Beatty and Lieutenant Wright, British, have been severely wounded at Tien Tsin, according to a Shanghai dispatch to The Daily Express, dated Saturday. The information was brought there by the British cruiser Orlando, from Che-Foo. The losses of the Russians have been heavy.

It was reported from Shanghai Saturday evening that the allied forces had blown up the Taku forts and that every available man had been sent to the relief of Tien Tsin. Two thousand, three hundred Chinese bodies alleged to have been cremated at Taku and more than 4,000 Chinese were said to have been killed at Tien Tsin.

Chinese runners who had arrived at Taku report that a foreign force was engaged several days ago with an overwhelming body of Chinese about 40 miles west of Tien Tsin. At Shanghai it was assumed that this force was Admiral Seymour's.

"I learn from a mandarin, who stealthily left Peking on June 16, and who succeeded at great hazard in getting clear, that the Boxers are massed around Peking and that more than half of the northern and western portions of the city, including the foreign settlement, were aflame when the mandarin left. He could tell me nothing as to the fate of the foreigners, nor much as to the general situation, but he had heard that the empress dowager was preparing to go to the province of Shan-Si."

A Che Foo dispatch to The Daily Mail, dated Sunday, said in part:

"Practically the whole of Northern China is ablaze. Hostilities are now conducted on an extended scale, due to orders from Peking. General Yann Shi Kai, governor of Shan-Tung, commands 11,000 foreign drilled troops, organized to a high pitch of excellence and equipped with Mausers. It was in the plans that these troops should go to Taku, but the seizure of the forts was effected before they could get there."

Some of the special dispatches from Shanghai described the great southern provinces of China as still and quiet, but others asserted that the news from the north was exciting the southerners to a dangerous height of feeling, and that millions might rise any day.

Shanghai was quiet but there were fears of a rising. The action of the consuls in asking for the departure of the six Chinese cruisers was objected to by the senior naval officer, who informed them that he had at his disposal a force sufficient to compel them to leave if they objected to the presence of the fleet. The Chinese cruisers are heavier armed than the vessels of the allies, among whose six vessels is the United States gunboat Castine.

The powers were said to have fatally underestimated the numbers, desperation and armament of the Chinese, who for about three years had been accumulating rifles at the rate of 20,000 a month.

NO REPORT OF THEIR MURDER.

Dr. Leonard Received No Such Cablegram as to Pykes and Haynes.

DELAWARE, O., June 25.—Rev. Mr. Leonard, of this city, secretary of the Foreign Missionary society of the Methodist Episcopal church, received semi-official news from Tien Tsin that the following Methodist missionaries, Rev. Dr. Pyke and wife and Rev. Norman Hayner and wife, all formerly of this place, have been murdered by Chinese "Boxers."

DELAWARE, O., June 25.—Dr. Leonard, missionary secretary of the M. E. church, denied the reported cablegram from Frederick Brown, at Che Foo, concerning the alleged murder of American missionaries, the Pykes and Haynes, was received by him. He said: "I have no reason to believe that any of our missionaries in China have been murdered, and I shall continue to believe that all are alive until I receive positive information to the contrary."

Baron Von Ketteler Declared Safe.

BERLIN, June 25.—The Chinese Minister here, Lu-Hui-Houan, informed the foreign offices that the German minister at Peking, Baron von Ketteler, who it was reported had been killed by the "Boxers," is safe and well.

MURDERS OF A MANIAC.

Half-Naked He Invaded Two Iowa Homes.

KILLED TWO MEN WITH AN AX.

Wounded Two Women—Designed to Murder Inmates and Janitor of Old Ladies' Home, but Latter Overpowered Him. Crazy Fiend Finally Suicided.

CEDAR RAPIDS, Ia., June 25.—Charles Mefford, a maniac, killed James Fitzsimmons, fatally injured Joseph Drake, seriously and possibly fatally injured Mrs. James Fitzsimmons, slightly injured Miss Kate Fitzsimmons and then ended his own life. Mefford was 27 years old.

While clad in nothing but a shirt, he darted out of his home, a raving maniac. He was seen two or three times, but the police failed to find him.

Later, Reginald Andrews, the janitor of the Old Ladies' home, was awakened by crashing glass. The next moment Mefford stood before him, stark naked, swinging a neck yoke. He tried to kill Andrews, finally.

The latter threw Mefford on the bed and choked him until he begged for mercy. Then Andrews agreed to give him a bath, a suit of clothes and some breakfast, which apparently satisfied him.

Rushing through the house Andrews locked the 12 or 14 old ladies in their rooms, notified the police by telephone and then ran across the street to the home of Joseph Drake for assistance. Drake dressed, picked up a revolver and they started out.

As they did so, Mefford, carrying an ax, was seen to plunge through a window in the home of James Fitzsimmons.

As he entered the room, Mrs. Fitzsimmons uttered a scream. Mefford swung the ax and brought it down toward her head. Her uplifted arm saved her life; the arm was broken in two places and she sustained a serious scalp wound.

Mr. Fitzsimmons, hearing the scream, dashed into the room and grappled with the maniac. Mefford shook him off and sent the ax crashing into his skull, splitting his head wide open. Then, dashing upstairs, Mefford attacked Miss Kate Fitzsimmons, inflicting a number of severe scalp wounds.

When he came downstairs Drake had just entered the house.

Drake dropped to his knees to shoot. Click, click, click, went the revolver. But there were four empty chambers, and each time the hammer went down on one of them. Then Mefford struck him on the head with the ax. A second and third blow followed and Drake fell over.

Andrews escaped the maniac again. Mefford took Drake's revolver and ran out of the house. On the street he shot himself once, ran on, then sat down on a curb, shot himself again and finally fell over dead.

GRAND ARMY ENCAMPMENT.

Chicago Making Preparations For the Meeting In August.

CHICAGO, June 24.—This city is preparing for the Grand Army encampment in August.

One of the great features of the encampment will be a magnificent court of honor to be erected along Michigan avenue, from Van Buren to Twelfth street, a distance of nearly a mile. This is to have great arches at either end, and the whole will cost in the neighborhood of $25,000. Each of the various parades will pass through this court of honor, at a certain point of which President McKinley and others will review the march of the heroes. There will be free band concerts in the various parks of the city and fireworks displays at night.

The committee on invitations, of which General John C. Black is chairman, is now sending out 6,000 requests for prominent men and organizations from all parts of the United States to attend. President McKinley has accepted.

The encampment will continue from Monday, Aug. 27, to Thursday, Aug. 30.

Probably Fatally Burned.

PITTSBURG, June 25.—Mrs. Barbara Killin, 22 years old, of 3126 Mary street, Southside, was perhaps fatally burned by a lamp explosion at the house of a neighbor, whom she was helping with ironing. Soon she was ablaze from head to foot, and dashing from the house she ran through the street the distance of a square to her home and husband, Alexander Killin. The latter was sitting at home at the time and rushed to her rescue. In putting out the flames he was also badly burned. The two were taken to the Southside hospital.

44 KILLED IN WRECKS.

Railway Disasters In Georgia and Wisconsin.

TRAIN PLUNGED INTO WASHOUT.

Everybody Killed Near McDonough, Ga., Except Occupants of a Sleeping Car. Trains Collided at Depere, Wis.—One Man Missing, Beside the Number Killed.

ATLANTA, June 25.—A passenger train on the Macon branch of the Southern railway ran into a washout about one and a half miles north of McDonough, Ga. The wreck caught fire and the entire train, with the exception of the sleeper, was destroyed. Every person on the train except the occupants of the Pullman car perished. Not a member of the train crew escaped. Thirty-five people in all were killed.

The dead:
William A. Barclay, conductor, Atlanta.
J. E. Wood, conductor, Atlanta.
J. H. Hunnicutt, conductor, Atlanta.
J. T. Sullivan, engineer.
W. W. Bennett, baggagemaster, Atlanta.

T. M. Maddox, cotton buyer, Atlanta.
W. J. Pate, Atlanta.
Twelve-year-old son of W. J. Pate, Atlanta.
H. K. Cressman, Pullman conductor.
George W. Flournoy, Atlanta.
D. C. Hightower, Stockbridge, Ga.
W. W. Ipark, Macon, Ga.
Elder Henson, traveling man, supposed to have been from Florida.
J. R. Florida, Nashville.
W. O. Ellis, bridgeman, Stockbridge.
D. Y. Griffith, supervisor.
J. H. Rhodes, flagman.
John Brantley, white, flagman.
Will Green, extra fireman.
W. L. Morrisett, pump repairer.
W. R. Lawrence, foreman extra gang.
Ed Byrd, colored, fireman, Atlanta.
Robert Spencer, train porter.
Four bodies, unidentified.
Eight negro section hands.

The following passengers were rescued without serious injury:
Jesse L. Rohr, Baltimore.
Walter Pope, Atlanta.
Miss Mary B. Merritt, Boston, Mass.
Miss Clara Alden, Boston, Mass.
J. C. Flynn, Atlanta.
E. Schryner, Chattanooga, Tenn.
E. T. Mack, Chattanooga, Tenn.
J. J. Quinlan, flagman.
T. C. Carter, Pullman porter.
Handy Tomlinson.

McDonough was reached on time. At this point connection is made for Columbus, Ga., and here every night the Columbus train is coupled on and hauled through to Atlanta. This time, however, for the first time in many months, the Columbus train was reported about two hours late on account of a washout on that branch, and the Macon train started on to Atlanta without its Columbus connection.

About a mile and a half north of McDonough, Camp's creek comes somewhat near the Southern's tracks and, running alongside it for some distance, finally passes away under the road by a heavy stone culvert. A cloudburst broke over that section of the country and presumably washed out a section of the track nearly 100 feet in length. Into this the swiftly moving train plunged. The storm was still raging and all the car windows were closed. The victims went to death apparently without an instant's warning.

The train, consisting of a baggage car, second class coach, first class coach, and a Pullman sleeper, was knocked into kindling wood by the fall. The wreck caught fire a few minutes after the fall and all the coaches were burned except the Pullman car.

Every person on the train except the occupants of the Pullman car perished in the disaster.

Some of the bodies floated off. Some of them were terribly mangled.

Flagman Quinlan went back to the telegraph office at McDonough and gave the news and then fell in a faint.

Only three women were on the train. Two escaped. It is presumed that the other perished, but the body had not been found.

ASKED CREASY TO EXPLAIN.

Secretary of Agriculture Hamilton, of Pennsylvania, Writes Regarding Recent Charges.

HARRISBURG, June 25.—Secretary of Agriculture Hamilton wrote an open letter to Representative William T. Creasy, of Catawissa, asking for a definite explanation of the accusations made against his administration in a series of resolutions adopted at a recent meeting of Pomona Grange No. 5, of Columbia and lower Luzerne counties. The resolutions were prepared by a committee composed of Mr. Creasy, E. H. Sloan and A. P. Young, and recited that the reports of the United States revenue department showed that there were 12,000,000 pounds of oleomargarine sold in Pennsylvania last year, and only 220,000 pounds in New York state; that the "proven complicity of the state officials with violators of the laws, passed to prevent injury and fraud, financial and fiscal, to the people, merits the severest censure."

The resolution recited further that the violations of the oleo law could not have been carried on without the secretary's knowledge; that colored oleo was still being sold and demanded the resignation of Mr. Hamilton, "with all the officials who have been guilty of negligence in the enforcement of the pure food laws." Mr. Hamilton requested that Mr. Creasy confine his data to the period elapsing since April 24, 1899, when he was appointed secretary of agriculture by Governor Stone.

NEW NOTE TO TURKEY.

This Government Insists on a Reply to Our Demand For Indemnity.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Saturday, June 23.—Lloyd C. Griscom, United States charge d'affaires, today presented a fresh note to the Ottoman government, insisting upon an immediate reply to the demand of the United States for a settlement of the indemnity in connection with the losses of Americans at the time of the Armenian massacres.

Although vigorously phrased the note is not an ultimatum. It is said, however, to have been a disagreeable surprise to the porte, testifying as it does to the intention of the United States government to pursue this matter of indemnity to the end.

WASHINGTON, June 25.—The representation made by Mr. Griscom was written here, and consists of a strong presentation of the case and an urgent request for early payment of the claims. It was not an ultimatum, since it contained no alternative proposition as to our course if payment is not made. This presentation was in accordance with the determination of the United States government to press these claims to a settlement.

TRY TO ARRANGE PEACE.

Filipino Leaders Attempt to Reconstruct Demands Acceptable to Both Sides.

MANILA, June 25.—General MacArthur gave a formal answer to the Filipino leaders who, last Thursday, submitted to him peace proposals that had been approved earlier in the day by a meeting of representative insurgents. In his reply he assured them that all personal rights under the United States constitution, excepting trial by jury and the right to bear arms would be guaranteed them.

The promoters of the peace movement were again engaged in reconstructing the draft of the seven clauses submitted to General MacArthur in such a way as to render it acceptable to both sides.

The seventh clause, providing for the expulsion of the friars, General Mac-

Arthur rejected on the ground that the settlement of this question rested with the commission headed by Judge Taft. That portion of the Forty-third infantry which formerly garrisoned the island of Samar will proceed to the island of Leyte, giving the garrison there the needed reinforcement. The battalion of the Twenty-ninth infantry which was sent to Samar will act as the garrison there.

HON. T. H. CLARK.

He Addresses a Nice Audience at the First Presbyterian Church.

The intense heat caused very many persons to absent themselves from the various churches yesterday, and to seek after some cool and comfortable retreat. Despite the heat, however, an intensely interested audience listened to Hon. T. H. Clark, as he made clear many points in connection with the laws supposed to control and hold in check the great evil known as the liquor traffic. He went on to show the advances which have been made in the line of temperance in this state, and insisted that there existed no grounds for despondency on the part of lovers of temperance and clean life; but, on the contrary, they have great cause for rejoicing.

Clark believes in the utter prohibition of the manufacture and sale of intoxicants; but he also believes that, in case this desired end cannot be reached at this time, in hitting the hydra-headed serpent of the still at any and every point which can be reached, trusting Almighty God for results. He further believes that money was made use of by the liquor traffic in defeating the Clark bill in the senate, and he is backed up in this sentiment and belief by a great mass of the voters of Ohio, men who will make their votes count against the liquor traffic at some future time.

Rev. Baker followed Mr. Clark in a brief and incisive speech, during which he made the assertion that one of the representatives of the people, a Methodist and the superintendent of an Epworth League, voted against the Clark bill. Rev. Clark Crawford, pastor of the First M. E. church, was seated just in front of the speaker, and he showed his abhorrence of the said recreant Epworth Leaguer by twice repeating the word "shame, shame." Dr. Clark Crawford is a clean cut Christian minister, and we feel honored in doing battle under his command. The writer knows another member of the Epworth League who affiliates with and makes excuses for the saloon, and holds the fellow in supreme contempt. Such men have no right in the ranks of truly Christian men, and the sooner they are banished from the church fold, and forbidden entrance thereto until they are truly repentant and ask God for forgiveness, the better for the church they have so disgraced. The day for sickly sentimentalism has gone by, and the Master demands that His followers shall show their colors.

REV. GILBERT RAYNOR.

He Addresses a Crowded House at the Second Presbyterian Church.

Rev. Dr. Raynor in his sermon at the Second Presbyterian church yesterday morning took as his text "Thy Kingdom Come." He applied this text to the temperance work now being agitated, and told of the effective work being done by the Anti-Saloon league. The league has headquarters at Columbus and has a force of about 20 capable men who are constantly applying themselves to aid the cause of temperance and temperance legislation in the state. The question is being constantly agitated. He said that about one-third of the townships of the state now are dry, greatly through the work of the league. The league also has a law enforcing department, whose object is to see that laws are enforced in places where the saloons have been voted out, and have made many successful prosecutions against lawbreakers.

Don't Borrow.

Only the other day a Boston firm of sharks charged a man $5 for making out the mortgage on a loan of $10 and then charged him interest. A Lowell shark recently loaned a man $20 and charged him $3 for making out the mortgage, and every month he causes the man to sign a new mortgage and charges him $3 each time, besides the regular rate of interest, thus bringing the interest up to $100 per cent per annum. The several mortgages are not recorded since the first one, and every $3 the borrower pays goes into the lender's pocket.—Boston Traveler.

and Assistant Gilbert Raynor
Also Speak.

THE HON. T. H. CLARK'S SPEECH

Yesterday was anti-saloon day in the Methodist Episcopal, Presbyterian, Methodist Protestant and Christian churches of the city.

Hon. T. H. Clark, author of the local option bill which bore his name, spoke in the afternoon at the First Presbyterian. Rev. J. C. Jackson, D. D., assistant national superintendent of the Anti-Saloon league, spoke in the morning at the First U. P. church and in the evening at the Methodist Protestant; Rev. Purley A. Baker, state superintendent of the league, spoke in the morning at the Christian church and in the evening at the First Methodist church, while Rev. Gilbert Raynor, assistant state superintendent, spoke in the East End churches, at the United Presbyterian in the morning and at the Second Presbyterian in the evening, when the congregation of the Second M. E. church attended.

INTERESTING FACTS

ABOUT THE ANTI-SALOON LEAGUE SET FORTH IN DETAIL

By Rev. J. C. Jackson, D. D., Assistant National Superintendent of the League.

Rev. J. C. Jackson, D. D., assistant national superintendent of the Anti-Saloon league, occupied the pulpit at the First United Presbyterian church. The speaker stated that his thoughts were somewhat divided, as he had just received the news that two of his missionary friends had fallen in China. He referred to the saloon as the mightiest moral monster of the present time in Christendom at least. He said it had the world for its dwelling place, the flesh for its mother and the devil for its father, had no eyes to see, ears to hear, or heart to feel the ruin it caused. The help and sympathy that had been extended to the league in this state last year was commented upon by the speaker and he spoke of the fact that it now had 4,000 churches among its membership. The first department of the league, he said, was the agitation department, and unless the Christian churches of the nation agitated the matter they must die, speaking from a temperance standpoint.

The saloons in this state last year caused 3,000 idiotic persons, 5,000 insane, 10,000 convicts, 55,000 impoverished, while 2,000 died from the effects of alcoholism. He said the league had 18 people constantly employed in the agitation department holding meetings and last year 9,000 week night meetings were held and 2,000 Christian pulpits were occupied on Sundays.

He spoke of the fact that during the year the league had engaged in 60 township local option fights and had won in 54 of them. He said in the last two months at least 20 local option fights had been won. He also stated that the league had assisted 100 townships during the year in enforcing the law and giving the township inspector moral influence.

The second department of the league is that of Christian citizenship. The fact that the league is omnipartisan was commented upon by Mr. Jackson, and he stated that it cared nothing for the Republican, Democratic or any other party, but aimed to teach the voters to act independent of party on the saloon question. He said it was the duty of the voters to strike at the evil with their ballots, and that the saloon control of politics was the chief stronghold of Satan. He spoke of the fight the league waged against the brewers' candidate for lieutenant governor last year and said it had succeeded in defeating 11 out of 12 candidates for representatives who had been endorsed by the saloon keepers.

He then spoke of the local option bills that had been introduced in the house and said the league intended to continue right on until they were successful in their efforts to give the people of the state power to put the saloons out by their ballots. He spoke of the fact that 47,000 of the 80,000 Christian voters responded to their call last year, but they would not be satisfied until the 250,000 Christian voters of the state responded.

The last department of the league is that of law enforcement. The speaker stated that during the recent oil excitement at Scio the lawless element took possession of the town and the town officers appealed to the league for help. The league sent in several of their secret service men to obtain evidence, and their chief attorney, Wheeler, conducted the prosecutions. As a result of their labors six of the law breakers were arraigned before the judge, and five of them were given anywhere from $150 to $500, with jail attached, and the sixth one seeing what was in store for him jumped from the court room and made his escape. The last election held in Scio there was a fight on in regard to the town council and the league captured it. During the year Wheeler, the chief attorney of the league, has conducted 188 prosecutions and won 170 of them, while Assistant Attorney Calendar won 70 prosecutions, and the two gentlemen have assisted town prosecutors and solicitors in numerous cases, winning 60 of them. He spoke of the fact that they had held the saloons level and had turned the tide the other way and were gradually whittling down the saloons and every year the licenses became less. Last year he said the federal licenses had increased about 200, but this was caused by the better times and were mostly by drug store licenses. During the existence of the league they have put 2,000 saloons out of existence, 300 towns are without open saloons, as a result of their efforts. He closed his remarks by stating: "It is our duty to push the battle to the death and God in His own time will give us the victory if we are faithful."

BOY'S FALL INTO A CELLAR

Eight-Year-Old Wilsie Elliott May
Have Injured His Spine Saturday Evening.

SECTION HAND KNOCKED DOWN

Mrs. Ross Joseph, residing on Pleasant Heights, had a narrow escape from being seriously injured last evening in the West End.

Mrs. Joseph was on a crowded car coming from Wellsville, and when opposite Peake's store on Eighth street, the motorman stopped his car to allow her to get off, but he started when she had but one foot on the ground. She was thrown around the end of the car and fell on her back, holding in the air her 2-year-old baby, which escaped uninjured.

Mrs. Joseph was unconscious when picked up and was taken to the home of Mr. McElvoy near by, where medical aid was rendered. After about an hour she regained consciousness and was taken to her home on Pleasant Heights in the patrol.

UNABLE TO WALK.

Wilsie Elliott, Eight Years Old, May be Seriously Injured by
His Fall.

Wilsie, one of the 8-year-old twin sons of Mr. and Mrs. John Elliott, Calcutta road, met with quite a serious accident Saturday evening about 6 o'clock. He and several companions were playing in the unfinished house of Henry Werner near the child's home. The boy slipped and fell through the opening for the stairway into the basement of the building, a distance of eight or nine feet. He fell with his back on a pile of boards. Dr. Hobbs was called and attended to the injuries. It is believed that the child's spine is injured, as he is still unable to stand and may have received internal injuries.

SECOND CAR STRUCK HIM.

Section Hand Was Not Looking For
Another and Was Struck
and Stunned.

A laborer working on the grading of the street car line in the East End was struck by a car Saturday afternoon. A car had left the East End switch, the motorman intending to run to the power house. Before he reached there, however, he met the eastbound car and started his car back. The workmen stepped from the track to allow the car to pass and supposed it was the regular eastbound car. The other car, which followed close, struck him, knocking him down and severely stunning him.

FIRE CRACKERS.

Fourth of July is the Day to Celebrate
and People Must Remember It.

Mayor Davidson and Chief Thompson are determined that the small boys of the city shall not commence the celebration of the Fourth of July several weeks ahead and orders have been issued to the officers to arrest all offenders found firing fire crackers or toy pistols in the city limits. This action was caused by the numerous complaints filed against the small boys who began the celebration on Saturday night.

HAD HIS TROUBLES.

A Man Who Left the City Without
Paying His Grocery
Bill.

Saturday night an irate grocer met one of his customers who was about to leave town at the train. The fellow protested that he intended to stay here and even went so far as to kiss his wife goodbye. When the train pulled out he jumped aboard. So did the grocer, who went to Smith's Ferry with him trying to collect his bill. The passengers on the train became interested and one man wanted the grocer to whip the man. After the grocer had retired from the scene the passengers kept up a running fire of "Why don't you pay your grocery bill?" "Who robbed the grocer?" and other remarks of a like character until the fellow was compelled to leave the car.

A CURIOSITY.

BURROUGHS CUT BEATTY'S THROAT

An Old Grudge Leads to a Slashing
Affray on West Market Late
Saturday Night.

ATTACKED WITHOUT A WORD

Burroughs Arrested and Held For
Court in the Sum of $500 by
Mayor Davidson.

TROUBLE WAS DUE TO LIQUOR

Frank Beatty, a painter, had his throat cut Saturday night by Sidney Burroughs, but luckily the razor Burroughs wielded was not very sharp and Beatty escaped with a painful cut in the fleshy part of the neck. A physician took three stitches in the wound and Beatty is able to be around the city today.

The trouble occurred Saturday night, but what it started about is a mystery. According to the story told by Beatty he was walking out West Market street when Burroughs called to him. He went back and without saying a word Burroughs slashed him with the razor. It was probably the result of an old feud, as Beatty acknowledged that Burroughs had it in for him. Officers Willis Davidson and Dawson placed Burroughs under arrest a short time after the cutting occurred and he was given a hearing before his honor yesterday upon a charge of cutting with intent to wound. He was bound over to court in the sum of $500. The trouble was due to liquor, as Burroughs was under the influence when he committed the deed.

WERE DISORDERLY.

A Motorman Put Four People Off a
Southside Car Late Saturday
Night.

Saturday night four men were disorderly on a street car returning home the Southside. When this end of the bridge was reached the motorman put one of the men off. At the corner of Walnut street he put the other three off and Chief Thompson gathered two of them in. He took them over to city hall, but released them, as he had no evidence against them.

FOR THE FUND.

The ball game Saturday between the Murphy-Thompson and Laughlin No. 2 clubs would have been featureless had it not been for D. Wheatley, who gave three bases on balls in the third inning and then struck out the next three men, a record that would be hard to beat. Chambers also pitched good ball, but was given very ragged support. He made a three-base hit in the second and D. Wheatley made one in the seventh that were the longest hits of the season. The umpiring of Carey was also very ragged. Carey will always make mistakes until he moves around the diamond and follows the example of Umpire Davidson, who has not a kick registered against his decisions this season.

Before the game was over the Thompson players announced their intention of retiring from the league, giving as a reason that the Murphy end of their team desired that more of the Murphy pottery players should be put in the game. Gallagher, who has been playing a good second, was laid off and Dray put in his place. Dray struck out every time he was at bat. The Thompson players say there is no use trying to get a winning team under the circumstances, and they simply filled the date Saturday rather than to disappoint the Laughlin No. 2 team. The Thompson players who have quit are Allison, McShane, Tomlinson and Phillips; White, Chambers and Firth, the Sebring members of the club, have also quit. This is the best end of the club. It is thought the matter will be fixed up at the meeting of the league tonight and the team turned over to the Thompson players.

A Berry Picker's Peculiar But Forcible Way of Putting the Question.

The Salem Herald is responsible for this tale:

Newton M. Ingledo, of Salem, employed south of the city on a berry farm, arrayed himself in his best togs and drove to the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Seinheiser, at Franklin Square, and invited his daughter, Miss Lydia, to accompany him to Lisbon, as he desired to pay his taxes.

On the way to the county seat he informed the young lady that he had made up his mind to get married and had chosen her for his bride. This prompt declaration almost took Miss Seinheiser's breath away, and a refusal was the consequence. But Newt did not intend to take "no" for an answer, and pleaded his case with all the fire of an ardent lover, and finally won the lady's consent. The license was procured from the smiling and affable probate judge, after which the happy couple proceeded to Leetonia and were joined in the holy bonds of wedlock by the pastor of the Methodist Episcopal church in the presence of many friends and acquaintances.

The little village of Franklin was much excited over the sudden departure of the maiden, and gathered in large numbers at the residence of her parents to await her return in order to extend their earnest congratulations.

The evening was spent in a pleasant manner until about midnight when the company dispersed and Newt with them, leaving his bride to dream of fairy lands and a bright future, while he returned to his lonely cot to meditate on life's uncertainties. Next morning he was found at his usual duties.

Street Car Line is being constructed and will run through Grandview.

Paved Street and Sidewalks and Electric Light extends from the city to within one block of Grandview.

From the numerous inquiries as to when these lots would be placed in the market there is no doubt but that the limited number of lots in the plat now offered the public will be sold in a short time. There are good, solid and substantial reasons for this demand for lots in Grandview--beautiful for situation--magnificent views of the Ohio Valley--above the smoke and fog--within easy reach of the city. Do you want to own your own home? Do you want to quit paying rent? Then Grandview is the place for you to save your rent money and let it buy you a home. See how easy we make it for you.

CHAUTAUQUA CIRCLE.

CLOSE OF A MOST SUCCESSFUL
YEAR OF INTERESTING WORK.

Final Meeting Held at the Residence
of Mrs. Monroe Patterson
Much Enjoyed.

The East Liverpool Chautauqua Literary and Scientific circle closed a very successful year's work Friday night. The meeting was held at the residence of Mrs. Monroe Patterson. The literary program began with an address by Mrs. W. A. Hobbs, president of the circle, who gave a resume of the year's work. Other papers were read as follows: "Socialism," Mrs. C. T. Hard; "Birds," Mrs. E. L. Trimmer; "Abraham Lincoln," Miss M. E. Hazlett. A unique review of American literature created considerable amusement. Refreshments were served during the rendering of the program. The whole affair was delightfully informal, and was greatly enjoyed by all present. Mrs. Gertrude G. Dix presided at the piano with grace and skill.

The papers presented were on subjects from the course of reading pursued by the circle during the year, and while comprehending all will give a fair idea of the scope of the work. The year just closed has been devoted almost entirely to America, including a series of articles by Prof. Edwin Erle Sparks, of the university of Chicago, treating of the territorial, political, social and educational expansion of the American people. These articles were intensely interesting.

The completion of the year's work finds the interest of the members unabated, and they are even now anticipating the renewal of the work with pleasure. The next meeting of the circle will be held on the first Friday of September.

Camp Ground Notes.

A. S. Young and family will move to the camp ground tomorrow.

Yesterday afternoon it rained hard at the grounds, but there was not a drop of rain in the city.

T. R. Andrews and family, of Wells-ville, will move to the camp ground tomorrow.

VERY BAD WORK.

When the postmasters of Uncle Sam dare to hold mail in their offices at the instigation of the liquor league, when said mail is plainly and legibly directed to citizens of this great nation, things have reached a pretty pass, and the strong hand of the law should so punish such postmasters as to make them weary of such vile and dishonest work. The great fair minded American public will not stand such law breaking, and the head of the anti-saloon movement can rejoice in the fact that such measures as these recreant postmasters have resorted to are daily making hundreds of friends and coworkers for the Anti-Saloon league.

COUNCIL'S POWER.

The power of a councilmanic body is great. The council has the power to bar the saloon from this city at any time—at any hour. The people have no legal right to bar it out by ballot, and the councilmen of East Liverpool know this statement to be a fact. In case the present council should grant the people the right to ballot as to whether the saloon should go or stay, and nine-tenths of the people should vote that the saloon must go, council could laugh the wish of this grand majority to scorn and permit the saloon to stay and do business as usual. "But we want to know the sentiment of the people now," say one or two members of council, "and we will then ratify the decision of the people." What assurance have we that we could have a fair ballot? There would be no punishment under the law, at such an election, for repeaters and illegal voters, and every intelligent man in this city knows that all kinds of skullduggery and rascality would be indulged in by the unprincipled liquor element in case of such an election being held. Let our present council take the bull by the horns, quit themselves like brave and true and fearless men, and, by their vote in open council, scotch the rum devil and drive the saloon from our midst. Had the Clark bill won out then the people could have driven out the saloons by ballot; now, the power rests solely in our council. What will the harvest be? The people of this city have decided, on three separate occasions, that the saloon should be forced to leave East Liverpool. One notable occasion of this kind occurred a few years since, and council overrode the people. It must not so occur again.

DEVIL'S MONEY.

You can guess the meaning of this heading without the slightest doubt or hesitation. The government receives devil's money from the liquor traffic of this nation. Every dollar of this money is accursed currency, direct from the hand of the evil one. And this is not the language of a fanatic. It is the expression of a very plain, comprehensive, common sense truth. We base the thought on the truism that the liquor traffic and the saloon are evils of the most pronounced character—so pronounced, indeed, that the same law which permits them to exist, is forced to place all manner of restrictions around and about them. Then, in the name of common sense, how comes it that this great nation, "by the people, of the people and for the people" dares to secure or take revenue from an accursed, debasing, damnable evil? And, in the name of God-given intelligence, how dare this great and grand government engage in such a financial farce and term it a revenue producer? Its true name is cormorant, or revenue destroyer. Statistics, plain facts and figures, indisputable and unanswerable, have demonstrated, over and over, time and again, until the story has been worn threadbare, that for every dollar of revenue received by the government from the saloon and liquor traffic, that same government pays out twenty dollars in the covering up and correction of crime and disorder produced directly by the liquor traffic and saloon. Such a financial transaction in the business world would result in the principals being either laughed out of the business world or placed in an insane asylum. In the name of God and humanity let us see to it that this great land of ours shall refuse to receive so-called revenue from the hands of devils, existing either in hades or upon this earth. Let us see to it that no such accursed money goes into the erection of our public school buildings, the repairing of our thoroughfares or the erection of government buildings.

The News Review for all the news.

HEARTILY FAVORS IT.

Editor of the Columbiana Independent
Strongly Boosts the Bicycle
Sidepath Proposal.

Petitions asking Judge Boone for the appointment of a side path commission have been forwarded to the county seat, and he has signified his willingness to comply with the people's wishes. The Independent is heartily in favor of taxing bicycles for the construction of paths. The editor rides a wheel, and he would be more than willing to do his share toward paying for such improvements, and we believe every other wheelman in Columbiana county would be willing to do the same thing. The roads have been exceptionally bad this spring, and if they cannot be made fit for riding, the bicyclists should have a road of their own. There are enough bicycles in Columbiana county if taxed one dollar each, to build good paths along most of the principal roads, and keep them in excellent condition. Good, smooth paths at the roadside would open up increased avenues of usefulness for the bicycle.

THE FAMINE FUND.

The Children of the Methodist Protestant Church Contribute Liberally.

It was children's day at the Methodist Protestant church on Sunday, and the youngsters did a noble thing by contributing the snug sum of $18 to the India famine fund. The money was left at the News Review office today by Mrs. Poland, and was at once forwarded to the Christian Herald, New York city.

Greatly Improved.

The Pittsburg Commercial Gazette, recently purchased by George T. Oliver, already shows signs of new life and prosperity. The new management will leave nothing undone and will spare no expense to make the paper the leading morning daily of Pittsburg. The enterprise shown by the Gazette under the ownership of Mr. Oliver is attracting attention in newspaper circles everywhere and cannot fail to be appreciated by the public.

Ministers Meet.

The Ohio Valley Presbyterian Ministers' club met at the home of Reverend Laverty, at Wellsville, today. An entertaining program was rendered, including papers on "The Human Element in Religion," by Rev. E. L. McElvaine, of Toronto; "Responsibility to Our New Possessions," by Rev. J. A. Platts, of Mingo. A luncheon followed the program and music was rendered by the club's quartet.

Columbiana people were rather startled Monday evening to hear the whistle at the shaft continue to blow for about 15 minutes. ## HELD UP.

Law Students Who Tried to Do the Examiners Were Fooled
at Every Turn.

Columbus, June 25—Clerk Si Allen, of the supreme court, has mailed certificates of admission to the bar to those who passed the last examination, with the exception of seven that are retained on the order of the court pending a more thorough investigation of the charges that seven aspirants had formed a trust to filch and sell the printed lists of questions in advance of the examination.

A rumor backed by several suspicious circumstances credits three members of the trust to Ada and the other four to State University. The plan was to have an agent visit the printing shop and secure the lists. It was assumed that the printer would sell out for $500, and the imprudent youngsters who took the bait are said to have paid $40 each as an admission fee. It is said that about 25 customers had been secured. The secret agent visited Cleveland, Newark and Akron in an endeavor to locate the printing office, and was not successful for the sufficient reason that the lists were printed in Columbus, and Mr. E. B. Dillon, a member of the examining committee "sat up" with the printers all night and then saw the type distributed.

Failing to secure the actual lists, the trust foisted some old ones on the creditors. There is a manifest disposition on the part of the court and committee to punish the offenders.

VERY BAD WORK.

When the postmasters of Uncle Sam dare to hold mail in their offices at the instigation of the liquor league, when said mail is plainly and legibly directed to citizens of this great nation, things have reached a pretty pass, and the strong hand of the law should so punish such postmasters as to make them weary of such vile and dishonest work. The great fair minded American public will not stand such law breaking, and the head of the anti-saloon movement can rejoice in the fact that such measures as these recreant postmasters have resorted to are daily making hundreds of friends and coworkers for the Anti-Saloon league.

COUNCIL'S POWER.

The power of a councilmanic body is great. The council has the power to bar the saloon from this city at any time—at any hour. The people have no legal right to bar it out by ballot, and the councilmen of East Liverpool know this statement to be a fact. In case the present council should grant the people the right to ballot as to whether the saloon should go or stay, and nine-tenths of the people should vote that the saloon must go, council could laugh the wish of this grand majority to scorn and permit the saloon to stay and do business as usual. "But we want to know the sentiment of the people now," say one or two members of council, "and we will then ratify the decision of the people." What assurance have we that we could have a fair ballot? There would be no punishment under the law, at such an election, for repeaters and illegal voters, and every intelligent man in this city knows that all kinds of skullduggery and rascality would be indulged in by the unprincipled liquor element in case of such an election being held. Let our present council take the bull by the horns, quit themselves like brave and true and fearless men, and, by their vote in open council, scotch the rum devil and drive the saloon from our midst. Had the Clark bill won out then the people could have driven out the saloons by ballot; now, the power rests solely in our council. What will the harvest be? The people of this city have decided, on three separate occasions, that the saloon should be forced to leave East Liverpool. One notable occasion of this kind occurred a few years since, and council overrode the people. It must not so occur again.

DEVIL'S MONEY.

You can guess the meaning of this heading without the slightest doubt or hesitation. The government receives devil's money from the liquor traffic of this nation. Every dollar of this money is accursed currency, direct from the hand of the evil one. And this is not the language of a fanatic. It is the expression of a very plain, comprehensive, common sense truth. We base the thought on the truism that the liquor traffic and the saloon are evils of the most pronounced character—so pronounced, indeed, that the same law which permits them to exist, is forced to place all manner of restrictions around and about them. Then, in the name of common sense, how comes it that this great nation, "by the people, of the people and for the people" dares to secure or take revenue from an accursed, debasing, damnable evil? And, in the name of God-given intelligence, how dare this great and grand government engage in such a financial farce and term it a revenue producer? Its true name is cormorant, or revenue destroyer. Statistics, plain facts and figures, indisputable and unanswerable, have demonstrated, over and over, time and again, until the story has been worn threadbare, that for every dollar of revenue received by the government from the saloon and liquor traffic, that same government pays out twenty dollars in the covering up and correction of crime and disorder produced directly by the liquor traffic and saloon. Such a financial transaction in the business world would result in the principals being either laughed out of the business world or placed in an insane asylum. In the name of God and humanity let us see to it that this great land of ours shall refuse to receive so-called revenue from the hands of devils, existing either in hades or upon this earth. Let us see to it that no such accursed money goes into the erection of our public school buildings, the repairing of our thoroughfares or the erection of government buildings.

HEARTILY FAVORS IT.

Editor of the Columbiana Independent
Strongly Boosts the Bicycle
Sidepath Proposal.

Petitions asking Judge Boone for the appointment of a side path commission have been forwarded to the county seat, and he has signified his willingness to comply with the people's wishes. The Independent is heartily in favor of taxing bicycles for the construction of paths. The editor rides a wheel, and he would be more than willing to do his share toward paying for such improvements, and we believe every other wheelman in Columbiana county would be willing to do the same thing. The roads have been exceptionally bad this spring, and if they cannot be made fit for riding, the bicyclists should have a road of their own. There are enough bicycles in Columbiana county if taxed one dollar each, to build good paths along most of the principal roads, and keep them in excellent condition. Good, smooth paths at the roadside would open up increased avenues of usefulness for the bicycle.

Columbiana people were rather startled Monday evening to hear the whistle at the shaft continue to blow for about 15 minutes. # TWO GO-AS-YOU PLEASE BATTLES

Keep the Police Busy Sunday Afternoon and Evening and Two Fighters

WERE PROMPTLY LOCKED UP

The Other Two Gave the Force a Lively Up Hill Chase and Finally Got Away.

NEWS OF THE POLICE COURT

William Mercer and James Riley had a go-as-you-please near the ice plant last evening and disturbed the peace and good order of that neighborhood by a battle with their fists. Officer Mahony ran in Mercer and Riley will be arrested. They will be taught to spend their Sundays in a better manner in the future.

Hughey Martin filled up with the stuff that makes life and home miserable and going to his home on Third street he proceeded to make his home anything but a palace for the inmates to live in. Chief Thompson arrived on the scene and Martin was taken to the city jail to repent and learn that if he will get drunk he must not annoy other people.

S. Smith filled up with bad whisky on Saturday night and went to sleep near the freight station. Davidson and Aufderheide arrested him and he was given $5.60 by Mayor Davidson. He put up security and was released.

Last evening the police department received a telephone message stating that a fight was in progress on Thompson hill. Chief Thompson and Officer Davidson went to the scene at once and found a large crowd and two men having a scrap. The men who were fighting ran when they saw the officers and a chase ensued. Thompson and Davidson chased up over hills, down hollows and along streets until Avondale street was reached, but the men had too big a start. When Avondale street was reached Officers Morris and Aufderheide took up the chase and followed the men to Trentvale street, where they escaped. It was a fine relay, but the scrappers had too big a start on the officers.

TRENTON KILN MEN ONCE MORE OUT

Seven of Them at the Crescent Pottery Have Struck Work For Higher Wages.

BOTH SIDES OF THE TROUBLE

Hopes That the Difficulty May Be Satisfactorily Settled Before Long.

SOME TESTING THE KILNS

Trenton Times.

Trenton, June 23.—A kilnmen's strike that may be settled without any trouble is that of seven bisque kilnmen at the Crescent pottery, who have refused to work because of dissatisfaction among them over the amount of wages they are receiving.

The trouble has been presented to the potter's association and a meeting of the men has been called to take action on it when some kind of an agreement will be arrived at.

The number of bisque kilnmen employed at the Crescent pottery is only eleven when the plant is in full operation. At present there is work for only seven. For several weeks past the seven employed have been in a state of dissatisfaction at the pay they have been receiving, although the pottery claims to pay the same wages as the other potteries pay.

There have been a great many changes among the kilnmen, too, old ones leaving and new ones coming all the time. The kilnmen say that this was done because of the low wages paid, while the proprietors say the men were trying a game of "freeze out."

The proprietors also say that the men have not made any formal demand upon them, but have just expressed their dissatisfaction in these ways. The kilnmen are paid by piece work, and the amount of money they can earn depends upon many things—the condition of the kilns as well as the skill of the potter or kilnmen.

The superintendent of the works was seen this morning and said there would be no trouble after the meeting was held. Among the men it has been said that between 50 and 75 kilnmen have been working for the Crescent pottery at different times during the past few weeks, but have quit owing to the unsatisfactory state of the wages. This, the superintendent said this morning, was not true. Some changes have been made, but they were, in many instances, caused by the action of the firm itself, who, considering some of the men incompetent, had discharged them.

Why all the kilnmen are not out is explained by Vice President of the Potters' association Rhead, who says that those who are still at work are remaining only to make a good test of the kilns, and see whether the men's claim for more wages is a just one or not.

TWO GO-AS-YOU PLEASE BATTLES

Keep the Police Busy Sunday Afternoon and Evening and Two Fighters

WERE PROMPTLY LOCKED UP

The Other Two Gave the Force a Lively Up Hill Chase and Finally Got Away.

NEWS OF THE POLICE COURT

William Mercer and James Riley had a go-as-you-please near the ice plant last evening and disturbed the peace and good order of that neighborhood by a battle with their fists. Officer Mahony ran in Mercer and Riley will be arrested. They will be taught to spend their Sundays in a better manner in the future.

Hughey Martin filled up with the stuff that makes life and home miserable and going to his home on Third street he proceeded to make his home anything but a palace for the inmates to live in. Chief Thompson arrived on the scene and Martin was taken to the city jail to repent and learn that if he will get drunk he must not annoy other people.

S. Smith filled up with bad whisky on Saturday night and went to sleep near the freight station. Davidson and Aufferheide arrested him and he was given $5.60 by Mayor Davidson. He put up security and was released.

Last evening the police department received a telephone message stating that a fight was in progress on Thompson hill. Chief Thompson and Officer Davidson went to the scene at once and found a large crowd and two men having a scrap. The men who were fighting ran when they saw the officers and a chase ensued. Thompson and Davidson chased up over hills, down hollows and along streets until Avondale street was reached, but the men had too big a start. When Avondale street was reached Officers Morris and Aufferheide took up the chase and followed the men to Trentvale street, where they escaped. It was a fine relay, but the scrappers had too big a start on the officers.

TRENTON KILNMEN ONCE MORE OUT

Seven of Them at the Crescent Pottery Have Struck Work For Higher Wages.

BOTH SIDES OF THE TROUBLE

Hopes That the Difficulty May Be Satisfactorily Settled Before Long.

SOME TESTING THE KILNS

Trenton Times.

Trenton, June 23.—A kilnmen's strike that may be settled without any trouble is that of seven bisque kilnmen at the Crescent pottery, who have refused to work because of dissatisfaction among them over the amount of wages they are receiving.

The trouble has been presented to the potter's association and a meeting of the men has been called to take action on it when some kind of an agreement will be arrived at.

The number of bisque kilnmen employed at the Crescent pottery is only eleven when the plant is in full operation. At present there is work for only seven. For several weeks past the seven employed have been in a state of dissatisfaction at the pay they have been receiving, although the pottery claims to pay the same wages as the other potteries pay.

There have been a great many changes among the kilnmen, too, old ones leaving and new ones coming all the time. The kilnmen say that this was done because of the low wages paid, while the proprietors say the men were trying a game of "freeze out."

The proprietors also say that the men have not made any formal demand upon them, but have just expressed their dissatisfaction in these ways. The kilnmen are paid by piece work, and the amount of money they can earn depends upon many things—the condition of the kilns as well as the skill of the potter or kilnmen.

The superintendent of the works was seen this morning and said there would be no trouble after the meeting was held. Among the men it has been said that between 50 and 75 kilnmen have been working for the Crescent pottery at different times during the past few weeks, but have quit owing to the unsatisfactory state of the wages. This, the superintendent said this morning, was not true. Some changes have been made, but they were, in many instances, caused by the action of the firm itself, who, considering some of the men incompetent, had discharged them.

Why all the kilnmen are not out is explained by Vice President of the Potters' association Rhead, who says that those who are still at work are remaining only to make a good test of the kilns, and see whether the mens' claim for more wages is a just one or not.

HOW TO MEASURE A KILN.

For the benefit of those in the trade who are unable to find the cubic measurement of kilns the Commoner and Glassworker submits the following from a prominent kilnman's day book.

Diameter.	Height at Shoulder.	Height, well hole to crown hole.	Number Cubic feet in kiln.
17 feet.	17 feet 5 inches.	20 feet 5 inches.	4292 46-100
17 feet.	16 feet 4 inches.	19 feet 8 inches.	4085
17 feet.	15 feet 2 inches.	17 feet 10 inches.	3745
15 feet 6 in.	16 feet 4 inches.	20 feet 8 inches.	3492
15 feet 2 in.	16 feet 4 inches.	18 feet 8 inches.	3337

To find the number of days each kiln contains divide the cubic feet by 162 for gloss and 212 for bisque.

We give the above examples because kilns of the capacity of those mentioned can be found in every locality.

WEDDING BELLS.

Bride and Bridegroom Are Earnest Workers Against the Vicious Saloon.

Rev. Purley Baker, state superintendent of the Anti-Saloon league, united in marriage Gilbert J. Raynor, assistant state superintendent of the Anti-Saloon league, and Miss Ada Whetzel, of Columbus, Ohio. The happy couple, accompanied by Rev. Baker, left for Long Island on the early train this morning, for a three weeks' pleasure trip. Rev. Baker has been at work incessantly for the past four years in the earnest battle against the saloon and the liquor traffic, and right nobly has he earned his vacation.

Gilbert J. Raynor is an earnest and indefatigable worker in favor of the right and the truth. He has made a host of friends throughout the Buckeye state in his intelligent and fearless advocacy of the Anti-Saloon league and that which it represents. He has been assaulted and stoned by the element which represents the saloon and has made friends by the thousand in consequence, men who are slowly but surely awaking to the fact that the saloon is an unmitigated curse and evil to any community. Raynor can be ranked with the brainiest leaders and workers of the Anti-Saloon league. He made many friends in East Liverpool during his brief visits this point.

Miss Ada Whetzel has been at the head of the mailing department of the Anti-Saloon league, and has been a very faithful and efficient worker.

The News Review, in common with a host of friends of this model couple, wish them God's blessing and all the happiness that mortals are heir to. We predict a grand career of usefulness for Gilbert J. Raynor.

CHRISTIAN CHURCH.

Good Was Accomplished on Sunday in Connection With the Anti-Saloon Movement.

State Superintendent Baker delivered an intensely interesting address at the Christian church on Sunday morning. He asserted that the anti-saloon movement is making greater and grander strides in the way of success than any reform movement made mention of in history. He went on to show how the Haskell bill had but 36 votes in the lower house, and never reached the senate. Then followed the Harris bill with 50 votes, likewise failing to reach the senate. Then came the Clark bill, with 59 votes in the lower house, defeated by only one vote in the senate. "Surely," said the speaker, "we have no cause to be downhearted or despondent, but have the right to push forward, nothing daunted, to the consummation, under God's blessing, of a great and glorious victory. You are being educated to a better and a higher standard, thank God. The saloon has been made, under orders, as clean and as near Christian as such an accursed feature can be made; and yet it is more abhorrent to the great masses than ever before in its history. It is a marked thing and must go. An uplifted and enlightened and Christianized public sentiment has declared against the awful curse, and the church has decided to rise en masse against this monstrous evil of the century."

RUB UP YOUR RUBBER.

A Peculiar Manner by Which to Raise Money for the Sufferers in India.

Take your old and useless rubber hose, old rubber shoes, rubber goods of any kind or character, to the Methodist Protestant church on Wednesday night next, and add them to the common rubber fund, after which they will be sold and the proceeds will be applied to the relief fund to be sent to the starving people in India. It is a novel feature, and should win success.

CENSUS INCREASED.

The Fairmount Children's Home inmates Added 174 Names to the List.

The census enumerators added 174 names to their list when they arrived at Fairmount Children's home, but the compiling of the necessary information caused hard work on the part of Superintendent Southworth and several assistants. Several days were spent in going over records and using other means of gleaning the necessary statistics concerning the population of this well known institution.

Ohio's Health.

The June number of the Ohio Sanitary Bulletin, published under the direction of the state board of health, shows the number of cases of small-pox reported to the board from Jan. 1 to June 1 was 1,289, of which 39 developed in Columbus. There were in all 16 deaths from the disease. The report of cases of infectious diseases for the nine weeks ending June 2, is as follows: Membranous croup and diphtheria, 166 cases, 40 deaths; scarlet fever, 558 cases, 13 deaths; typhoid fever, 217 cases, 81 deaths; whooping cough, 132 cases, 13 deaths; measles, 1,564 cases, 14 deaths. Sixty-five municipalities, with an aggregate population of 873,186, reported to the board during the period named.

Lisbon's Woman in White.

Lisbon Patriot.

There is some excitement on West Washington street over the appearance of a woman dressed in white who after nightfall is seen to be wandering around and peeping into windows. This mysterious object has been seen by reliable persons on several occasions, but who she is and what she is after has not been discovered. Some are of the opinion that it is not a woman but a man dressed in woman's clothes; others that it is an insane person. One thing sure it is not a ghost as some believe, but something very much alive.

No Clue.

As yet no clue has been obtained as to who the robbers were who perpetrated the robbery at Butler & Howe's dry goods store at Wellsville on Wednesday night.

AMERICANS KILLED.

Seven Wounded In Ambuscade Near Tien Tsin.

REMEY WAS ORDERED TO TAKU

The American Admiral Told by Cable to Offer to MacArthur to Convey Any Troops Possible on the Brooklyn—Big Military Preparations.

WASHINGTON, June 25.—The navy department issued the following bulletin: "A telegram from Admiral Kempff, dated Che Foo, June 24, says:

"In ambuscade near Tien Tsin, on the 21st, four of Waller's command killed and seven wounded. Names will be furnished as soon as received. Force of 2,000 going to relieve Tien Tsin today."

(Signed) "KEMPFF." "The secretary of the navy ordered Admiral Remy to go with the Brooklyn to Taku and to tender to General MacArthur conveyance of any army troops which the Brooklyn can carry."

Admiral Kempff's report that four Americans were killed and seven wounded in the ambuscade of Waller's force caused the gravest concern among officials, but the chief fear was as to the outcome of the second attack, which the admiral reported would begin Sunday. This is little short of the dimensions of a battle, and its results may be decisive, not only to the immediate force employed, but in determining the fate of the legations and foreign settlements at Tien Tsin, and also whether the issue is or is not to be war with China.

Word reached the navy department that the battleship Oregon got away from Hongkong Saturday night, bound for Taku. This was about two days ahead of her expected start. She took on 164 sailors and marines, brought to Hongkong by the Zafiro. If she makes her record time she will be at Taku about the same time that the Brooklyn arrives from Manila.

The war branch of the government is preparing for any eventuality that may arise out of the Chinese situation. As stated by one of the highest officers of the army the scale of preparation is of a magnitude which would both interest and surprise the public. But, he added, the information would be of even greater interest and service to any foreign foe which the United States may be called upon to face within the next few weeks or months, and for that reason there is no purpose to make public the complete preparations making to meet whatever issue arises. All that the officials will say is that both the army and the navy, if the occasion arises, will give a good account of themselves.

MILLIONS MAY ARISE.

THROUGHOUT CHINA.

Northern China Aflame and Some Southerners Become Excited—Over 6,000 Chinamen Killed.

LONDON, June 25.—The position of the international forces in the section of Northern China, where 10,000 men are striving to keep a footing and to succor the legations in Peking, appears to increase in peril with every fresh dispatch. Peking has not been heard from direct for 14 days. The last dispatch was one imploring aid. Admiral Seymour's column of 2,000 was last heard from 12 days ago. At that time it was surrounded midway between Peking and Tien Tsin. Possibly now it has reached Peking.

The 3,000 internationals at Tien Tsin were hard pressed and fighting for their lives on Thursday and a relieving force

AMERICAN LEGATION IN PEKING.

Of less than a thousand had been beaten back to Taku Friday. Observers on the spot think that 100,000 men would not be too many to grasp China firmly.

A dispatch from Shanghai dated Sunday, at 4 p. m., said that official Japanese telegrams confirmed the reports of a defeat of the allied forces at Tien Tsin. The foreigners there were placed in a most desperate situation. The Russian admiral, Hillebrandt, Saturday sent a mixed force of 4,000 from Taku to attempt the relief of Tien Tsin. Nearly half of the force consisted of Japanese. The remainder was made up of contingents representing the other nations.

The guns of the Chinese around Tien Tsin were superior to anything the defending European forces had or were likely to have for some time.

The bombardment of Tien Tsin continued Friday. Bomb shelters were hastily erected by the foreign troops, largely constructed of wetted piece goods. The food supplies were insufficient and the continued shelling is reported to be telling terribly.

Among those killed of the release force Friday was the commander of H. M. S. Barleur. The foreign casualties were 300.

The Chinese troops in the province of Chi-Li were said to include about 60,000 auxiliaries, who have been drilled by Russian and German officers.

Captain Beatty and Lieutenant Wright, British, have been severely wounded at Tien Tsin, according to a Shanghai dispatch in The Daily Express, dated Saturday. The information was brought there by the British cruiser Orlando, from Che-Foo. The loss of the Russians have been heavy.

It was reported from Shanghai Saturday evening that the allied forces had blown up the Taku forts and that every available man had been sent to the relief of Tien Tsin. Two thousand, three hundred Chinese bodies alleged to have been cremated at Taku and more than 4,000 Chinese were said to have been killed at Tien Tsin.

Chinese runners who had arrived at Taku report that a foreign force was engaged several days ago with an overwhelming body of Chinese about 40 miles west of Tien Tsin. At Shanghai it was assumed that this force was Admiral Seymour's.

"I learn from a mandarin, who stealthily left Peking on June 16, and who succeeded at great hazard in getting clear, that the Boxers are massed around Peking and that more than half of the northern and western portions of the city, including the foreign settlement, were aflame when the mandarin left. He could tell me nothing as to the fate of the foreigners, nor much as to the general situation, but he had heard that the empress dowager was preparing to go to the province of Shan-Si."

A Che Foo dispatch to The Daily Mail, dated Sunday, said in part:

"Practically the whole of Northern China is ablaze. Hostilities are now conducted on an extended scale, due to orders from Peking. General Yuen Shi Kai, governor of Shan-Tung, commands 11,000 foreign drilled troops, organized to a high pitch of excellence and equipped with Mausers. It was in the plans that these troops should go to Taku, but the seizure of the forts was effected before they could get there."

Some of the special dispatches from Shanghai described the great southern provinces of China as still and quiet, but others asserted that the news from the north was exciting the southerners to a dangerous height of feeling, and that millions might rise any day.

Shanghai was quiet but there were fears of a rising. The action of the consuls in asking for the departure of the six Chinese cruisers was objected to by the senior naval officer, who informed them that he had at his disposal a force sufficient to compel them to leave if they objected to the presence of the fleet. The Chinese cruisers are heavier armed than the vessels of the allies, among whose six vessels is the United States gunboat Castine.

The powers were said to have fatally underestimated the numbers, desperation and armament of the Chinese, who for about three years had been accumulating rifles at the rate of 20,000 a month.

NO REPORT OF THEIR MURDER.

Dr. Leonard Received No Such Cablegram as to Pykes and Haynes.

DELAWARE, O., June 25.—Rev. Mr. Leonard, of this city, secretary of the Foreign Missionary society of the Methodist Episcopal church, received semi-official news from Tien Tsin that the following Methodist missionaries, Rev. Dr. Pyke and wife and Rev. Norman Hayner and wife, all formerly of this place, have been murdered by Chinese "Boxers."

DELAWARE, O., June 25.—Dr. Leonard, missionary secretary of the M. E. church, denied that the reported cablegram from Frederick Brown, at Che Foo, concerning the alleged murder of American missionaries, the Pykes and Haynes, was received by him. He said: "I have no reason to believe that any of our missionaries in China have been murdered, and I shall continue to believe that all are alive until I receive positive information to the contrary."

Baron Von Ketteler Declared Safe.

BERLIN, June 25.—The Chinese Minister here, Lu-Hui-Houan, informed the foreign offices that the German minister at Peking, Baron von Ketteler, who it was reported had been killed by the "Boxers," is safe and well.

MURDERS OF A MANIAC.

Half-Naked He Invaded Two Iowa Homes.

KILLED TWO MEN WITH AN AX.

Wounded Two Women—Designed to Murder Inmates and Janitor of Old Ladies' Home, but Latter Overpowered Him. Crazy Fiend Finally Suicided.

CEDAR RAPIDS, Ia., June 25.—Charles Mefford, a maniac, killed James Fitzsimmons, fatally injured Joseph Drake, seriously and possibly fatally injured Mrs. James Fitzsimmons, slightly injured Miss Kate Fitzsimmons and then ended his own life. Mefford was 27 years old.

While clad in nothing but a shirt, he darted out of his home, a raving maniac. He was seen two or three times, but the police failed to find him.

Later, Reginald Andrews, the janitor of the Old Ladies' home, was awakened by crashing glass. The next moment Mefford stood before him, stark naked, swinging a neck yoke. He tried to kill Andrews, finally.

The latter threw Mefford on the bed and choked him until he begged for mercy. Then Andrews agreed to give him a bath, a suit of clothes and some breakfast, which apparently satisfied him.

Rushing through the house Andrews locked the 12 or 14 old ladies in their rooms, notified the police by telephone and then ran across the street to the home of Joseph Drake for assistance. Drake dressed, picked up a revolver and they started out.

As they did so, Mefford, carrying an ax, was seen to plunge through a window in the home of James Fitzsimmons.

As he entered the room, Mrs. Fitzsimmons uttered a scream. Mefford swung the ax and brought it down toward her head. Her uplifted arm saved her life; the arm was broken in two places and she sustained a serious scalp wound.

Mr. Fitzsimmons, hearing the scream, dashed into the room and grappled with the maniac. Mefford shook him off and sent the ax crashing into his skull, splitting his head wide open. Then, dashing upstairs, Mefford attacked Miss Kate Fitzsimmons, inflicting a number of severe scalp wounds.

When he came downstairs Drake had just entered the house.

Drake dropped to his knees to shoot. Click, click, click, went the revolver. But there were four empty chambers, and each time the hammer went down on one of them. Then Mefford struck him on the head with the ax. A second and third blow followed and Drake fell over.

Andrews escaped the maniac again. Mefford took Drake's revolver and ran out of the house. On the street he shot himself once, ran on, then sat down on a curb, shot himself again and finally fell over dead.

GRAND ARMY ENCAMPMENT.

Chicago Making Preparations For the Meeting in August.

CHICAGO, June 24.—This city is preparing for the Grand Army encampment in August.

One of the great features of the encampment will be a magnificent court of honor to be erected along Michigan avenue, from Van Buren to Twelfth street, a distance of nearly a mile. This is to have great arches at either end, and the whole will cost in the neighborhood of $25,000. Each of the various parades will pass through this court of honor, at a certain point of which President McKinley and others will review the march of the heroes. There will be free band concerts in the various parks of the city and fireworks displays at night.

The committee on invitations, of which General John C. Black is chairman, is now sending out 6,000 requests for prominent men and organizations from all parts of the United States to attend. President McKinley has accepted.

The encampment will continue from Monday, Aug. 27, to Thursday, Aug. 30.

Probably Fatally Burned.

PITTSBURG, June 25.—Mrs. Barbara Killin, 22 years old, of 3126 Mary street, Southside, was perhaps fatally burned by a lamp explosion at the house of a neighbor, whom she was helping with ironing. Soon she was ablaze from head to foot, and dashing from the house she ran through the street the distance of a square to her home and husband, Alexander Killin. The latter was sitting at home at the time and rushed to her rescue. In putting out the flames he was also badly burned. The two were taken to the Southside hospital.

HOW TO MEASURE A KILN.

For the benefit of those in the trade who are unable to find the cubic measurement of kilns the Commoner and Glassworker submits the following from a prominent kilnman's day book.

Diameter.	Height at Shoulder.	Height, well hole to crown hole.	Number Cubic feet in kiln.
17 feet.	17 feet 5 inches.	20 feet 5 inches.	4292 46-100
17 feet.	16 feet 4 inches.	19 feet 8 inches.	4085
17 feet.	15 feet 2 inches.	17 feet 10 inches.	3745
15 feet 6 in.	16 feet 4 inches.	20 feet 8 inches.	3492
15 feet 2 in.	16 feet 4 inches.	18 feet 8 inches.	3337

To find the number of days each kiln contains divide the cubic feet by 162 for gloss and 212 for bisque.

We give the above examples because kilns of the capacity of those mentioned can be found in every locality.

WEDDING BELLS.

Bride and Bridegroom Are Earnest Workers Against the Vicious Saloon.

Rev. Purley Baker, state superintendent of the Anti-Saloon league, united in marriage Gilbert J. Raynor, assistant state superintendent of the Anti-Saloon league, and Miss Ada Whetzel, of Columbus, Ohio. The happy couple, accompanied by Rev. Baker, left for Long Island on the early train this morning, for a three weeks' pleasure trip. Rev. Baker has been at work incessantly for the past four years in the earnest battle against the saloon and the liquor traffic, and right nobly has he earned his vacation.

Gilbert J. Raynor is an earnest and indefatigable worker in favor of the right and the truth. He has made a host of friends throughout the Buckeye state in his intelligent and fearless advocacy of the Anti-Saloon league and that which it represents. He has been assaulted and stoned by the element which represents the saloon, and has made friends by the thousand in consequence, men who are slowly but surely awaking to the fact that the saloon is an unmitigated curse and evil to any community. Raynor can be ranked with the brainiest leaders and workers of the Anti-Saloon league. He made many friends in East Liverpool during his brief visits this point.

Miss Ada Whetzel has been at the head of the mailing department of the Anti-Saloon league, and has been a very faithful and efficient worker.

The News Review, in common with a host of friends of this model couple, wish them God's blessing and all the happiness that mortals are heir to. We predict a grand career of usefulness for Gilbert J. Raynor.

CHRISTIAN CHURCH.

Good Was Accomplished on Sunday in Connection With the Anti-Saloon Movement.

State Superintendent Baker delivered an intensely interesting address at the Christian church on Sunday morning. He asserted that the anti-saloon movement is making greater and grander strides in the way of success than any reform movement made mention of in history. He went on to show how the Haskell bill had but 36 votes in the lower house, and never reached the senate. Then followed the Harris bill with 50 votes, likewise failing to reach the senate. Then came the Clark bill, with 59 votes in the lower house, defeated by only one vote in the senate. "Surely," said the speaker, "we have no cause to be downhearted or despondent, but have the right to push forward, nothing daunted, to the consummation, under God's blessing, of a great and glorious victory. You are being educated to a better and a higher standard, thank God. The saloon has been made, under orders, as clean and as near Christian as such an accursed feature can be made; and yet it is more abhorrent to the great masses than ever before in its history. It is a marked thing and must go. An uplifted and enlightened and Christianized public sentiment has declared against the awful curse, and the church has decided to rise en masse against this monstrous evil of the century."

RUB UP YOUR RUBBER.

A Peculiar Manner by Which to Raise Money for the Sufferers in India.

Take your old and useless rubber hose, old rubber shoes, rubber goods of any kind or character, to the Methodist Protestant church on Wednesday night next, and add them to the common rubber fund, after which they will be sold and the proceeds will be applied to the relief fund to be sent to the starving people in India. It is a novel feature, and should win success.

CENSUS INCREASED.

The Fairmount Children's Home inmates Added 174 Names to the List.

The census enumerators added 174 names to their list when they arrived at Fairmount Children's home, but the compiling of the necessary information caused hard work on the part of Superintendent Southworth and several assistants. Several days were spent in going over records and using other means of gleaning the necessary statistics concerning the population of this well known institution.

Ohio's Health.

The June number of the Ohio Sanitary Bulletin, published under the direction of the state board of health, shows the number of cases of smallpox reported to the board from Jan. 1 to June 1 was 1,289, of which 39 developed in Columbus. There were in all 16 deaths from the disease. The report of cases of infectious diseases for the nine weeks ending June 2, is as follows: Membranous croup and diphtheria, 166 cases, 40 deaths; scarlet fever, 558 cases, 13 deaths; typhoid fever, 217 cases, 81 deaths; whooping cough, 132 cases, 13 deaths; measles, 1,564 cases, 14 deaths. Sixty-five municipalities, with an aggregate population of 873,186, reported to the board during the period named.

Lisbon's Woman in White.

Lisbon Patriot.

There is some excitement on West Washington street over the appearance of a woman dressed in white who after nightfall is seen to be wandering around and peeping into windows. This mysterious object has been seen by reliable persons on several occasions, but who she is and what she is after has not been discovered. Some are of the opinion that it is not a woman but a man dressed in woman's clothes; others that it is an insane person. One thing sure it is not a ghost as some believe, but something very much alive.

No Clue.

As yet no clue has been obtained as to who the robbers were who perpetrated the robbery at Butler & Howe's dry goods store at Wellsville on Wednesday night.

AMERICANS KILLED.

Seven Wounded In Ambuscade Near Tien Tsin.

REMEY WAS ORDERED TO TAKU

The American Admiral Told by Cable to Offer to MacArthur to Convey Any Troops Possible on the Brooklyn—Big Military Preparations.

WASHINGTON, June 25.—The navy department issued the following bulletin: "A telegram from Admiral Kempff, dated Che Foo, June 24, says:

"In ambuscade near Tien Tsin, on the 21st, four of Waller's command killed and seven wounded. Names will be furnished as soon as received. Force of 2,000 going to relieve Tien Tsin today."

(Signed) "KEMPFF." "The secretary of the navy ordered Admiral Remy to go with the Brooklyn to Taku and to tender to General MacArthur conveyance of any army troops which the Brooklyn can carry."

Admiral Kempff's report that four Americans were killed and seven wounded in the ambuscade of Waller's force caused the gravest concern among officials, but the chief fear was as to the outcome of the second attack, which the admiral reported would begin Sunday. This is little short of the dimensions of a battle, and its results may be decisive, not only to the immediate force employed, but in determining the fate of the legations and foreign settlements at Tien Tsin, and also whether the issue is or is not to be war with China.

Word reached the navy department that the battleship Oregon got away from Hongkong Saturday night, bound for Taku. This was about two days ahead of her expected start. She took on 164 sailors and marines, brought to Hongkong by the Zafiro. If she makes her record time she will be at Taku about the same time that the Brooklyn arrives from Manila.

The war branch of the government is preparing for any eventuality that may arise out of the Chinese situation. As stated by one of the highest officers of the army the scale of preparation is of a magnitude which would both interest and surprise the public. But, he added, the information would be of even greater interest and service to any foreign foe which the United States may be called upon to face within the next few weeks or months, and for that reason there is no purpose to make public the complete preparations making to meet whatever issue arises. All that the officials will say is that both the army and the navy, if the occasion arises, will give a good account of themselves.

Railway Disasters In Georgia and Wisconsin.

TRAIN PLUNGED INTO WASHOUT.

Everybody Killed Near McDonough, Ga., Except Occupants of a Sleeping Car. Trains Collided at Depere, Wis.—One Man Missing, Beside the Number Killed.

ATLANTA, June 25.—A passenger train on the Macon branch of the Southern railway ran into a washout about one and a half miles north of McDonough, Ga. The wreck caught fire and the entire train, with the exception of the sleeper, was destroyed. Every person on the train except the occupants of the Pullman car perished. Not a member of the train crew escaped. Thirty-five people in all were killed.

The dead:
William A. Barclay, conductor, Atlanta.
J. E. Wood, conductor, Atlanta.
J. H. Hunnicutt, conductor, Atlanta.
J. T. Sullivan, engineer.
W. W. Bennett, baggagemaster, Atlanta.
T. M. Maddox, cotton buyer, Atlanta.
W. J. Pate, Atlanta.
Twelve-year-old son of W. J. Pate, Atlanta.
H. K. Cressman, Pullman conductor.
George W. Flournoy, Atlanta.
D. C. Hightower, Stockbridge, Ga.
W. W. Ipark, Macon, Ga.
Elder Henson, traveling man, supposed to have been from Florida.
J. R. Florida, Nashville.
W. O. Ellis, bridge man, Stockbridge.
D. Y. Griffith, supervisor.
J. H. Rhodens, flagman.
John Brantley, white, flagman.
Will Green, extra fireman.
W. L. Morrisett, pump repairer.
W. R. Lawrence, foreman extra gang.
Ed Byrd, colored, fireman, Atlanta.
Robert Spencer, train porter.
Four bodies, unidentified.
Eight negro section hands.
The following passengers were rescued without serious injury:
Jesse L. Rohr, Baltimore.
Walter Pope, Atlanta.
Miss Mary B. Merritt, Boston, Mass.
Miss Clara Alden, Boston, Mass.
J. C. Flynn, Atlanta.
E. Schryner, Chattanooga, Tenn.
E. T. Mack, Chattanooga, Tenn.
J. J. Quinlan, flagman.
T. C. Carter, Pullman porter.
Handy Tomlinson.

McDonough was reached on time. At this point connection is made for Columbus, Ga., and here every night the Columbus train is coupled on and hauled through to Atlanta. This time, however, for the first time in many months, the Columbus train was reported about two hours late on account of a washout on that branch, and the Macon train started on to Atlanta without its Columbus connection.

About a mile and a half north of McDonough, Camp's creek comes somewhat near the Southern's tracks and, running alongside it for some distance, finally passes away under the road by a heavy stone culvert. A cloudburst broke over that section of the country and presumably washed out a section of the track nearly 100 feet in length. Into this the swiftly moving train plunged. The storm was still raging and all the car windows were closed. The victims went to death apparently without an instant's warning.

The train, consisting of a baggage car, second class coach, first class coach, and a Pullman sleeper, was knocked into kindling wood by the fall. The wreck caught fire a few minutes after the fall and all the coaches were burned except the Pullman car.

Every person on the train except the occupants of the Pullman car perished in the disaster.
Some of the bodies floated off.
Some of them were terribly mangled.
Flagman Quinlan went back to the telegraph office at McDonough and gave the news and then fell in a faint.
Only three women were on the train. Two escaped. It is presumed that the other perished, but the body had not been found.

Secretary of Agriculture Hamilton, of Pennsylvania, Writes Regarding Recent Charges.

HARRISBURG, June 25.—Secretary of Agriculture Hamilton wrote an open letter to Representative William T. Creasy, of Catawissa, asking for a definite explanation of the accusations made against his administration in a series of resolutions adopted at a recent meeting of Pomona Grange No. 5, of Columbia and lower Luzerne counties. The resolutions were prepared by a committee composed of Mr. Creasy, E. H. Sloan and A. P. Young, and recited that the reports of the United States revenue department showed that there were 12,000,000 pounds of oleomargarine sold in Pennsylvania last year, and only 220,000 pounds in New York state; that the "proven complicity of the state officials with violators of the laws, passed to prevent injury and fraud, financial and fiscal, to the people, merits the severest censure."

The resolution recited further that the violations of the oleo law could not have been carried on without the secretary's knowledge; that colored oleo was still being sold and demanded the resignation of Mr. Hamilton, "with all the officials who have been guilty of negligence in the enforcement of the pure food laws." Mr. Hamilton requested that Mr. Creasy confine his data to the period elapsing since April 24, 1899, when he was appointed secretary of agriculture by Governor Stone.

NEW NOTE TO TURKEY.

This Government Insists on a Reply to Our Demand For Indemnity.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Saturday, June 23.—Lloyd C. Griscom, United States charge d'affaires, today presented a fresh note to the Ottoman government, insisting upon an immediate reply to the demand of the United States for a settlement of the indemnity in connection with the losses of Americans at the time of the Armenian massacres.

TRY TO ARRANGE PEACE.

Filipino Leaders Attempt to Reconstruct Demands Acceptable to Both Sides.

MANILA, June 25.—General MacArthur gave a formal answer to the Filipino leaders who, last Thursday, submitted to him peace proposals that had been approved earlier in the day by a meeting of representative insurgents. In his reply he assured them that all personal rights under the United States constitution, excepting trial by jury and the right to bear arms would be guaranteed them.

The promoters of the peace movement were again engaged in reconstructing the draft of the seven clauses submitted to General MacArthur in such a way as to render it acceptable to both sides.

The seventh clause, providing for the expulsion of the friars, General Mac-

Arthur rejected on the ground that the settlement of this question rested with the commission headed by Judge Taft.

44 KILLED IN WRECKS.

Railway Disasters In Georgia and Wisconsin.

TRAIN PLUNGED INTO WASHOUT.

Everybody Killed Near McDonough, Ga., Except Occupants of a Sleeping Car. Trains Collided at Depere, Wis.—One Man Missing, Beside the Number Killed.

ATLANTA, June 25.—A passenger train on the Macon branch of the Southern railway ran into a washout about one and a half miles north of McDonough, Ga. The wreck caught fire and the entire train, with the exception of the sleeper, was destroyed. Every person on the train except the occupants of the Pullman car perished. Not a member of the train crew escaped. Thirty-five people in all were killed.

The dead:
William A. Barclay, conductor, Atlanta.
J. E. Wood, conductor, Atlanta.
J. H. Hunnicutt, conductor, Atlanta.
J. T. Sullivan, engineer.
W. W. Bennett, baggagemaster, Atlanta.
T. M. Maddox, cotton buyer, Atlanta.
W. J. Pate, Atlanta.
Twelve-year-old son of W. J. Pate, Atlanta.
H. K. Cressman, Pullman conductor.
George W. Flournoy, Atlanta.
D. C. Hightower, Stockbridge, Ga.
W. W. Ipark, Macon, Ga.
Elder Henson, traveling man, supposed to have been from Florida.
J. R. Florida, Nashville.
W. O. Ellis, bridgeman, Stockbridge.
D. Y. Griffith, supervisor.
J. H. Rhodes, flagman.
John Brantley, white, flagman.
Will Green, extra fireman.
W. L. Morrisett, pump repairer.
W. R. Lawrence, foreman extra gang.
Ed Byrd, colored, fireman, Atlanta.
Robert Spencer, train porter.
Four bodies, unidentified.
Eight negro section hands.

The following passengers were rescued without serious injury:
Jesse L. Rohr, Baltimore.
Walter Pope, Atlanta.
Miss Mary B. Merritt, Boston, Mass.
Miss Clara Alden, Boston, Mass.
J. C. Flynn, Atlanta.
E. Schryner, Chattanooga, Tenn.
E. T. Mack, Chattanooga, Tenn.
J. J. Quinlan, flagman.
T. C. Carter, Pullman porter.
Handy Tomlinson.

McDonough was reached on time. At this point connection is made for Columbus, Ga., and here every night the Columbus train is coupled on and hauled through to Atlanta. This time, however, for the first time in many months, the Columbus train was reported about two hours late on account of a washout on that branch, and the Macon train started on to Atlanta without its Columbus connection.

About a mile and a half north of McDonough, Camp's creek comes somewhat near the Southern's tracks and, running alongside it for some distance, finally passes away under the road by a heavy stone culvert. A cloudburst broke over that section of the country and presumably washed out a section of the track nearly 100 feet in length. Into this the swiftly moving train plunged. The storm was still raging and all the car windows were closed. The victims went to death apparently without an instant's warning.

The train, consisting of a baggage car, second class coach, first class coach, and a Pullman sleeper, was knocked into kindling wood by the fall. The wreck caught fire a few minutes after the fall and all the coaches were burned except the Pullman car.

Every person on the train except the occupants of the Pullman car perished in the disaster.

Some of the bodies floated off. Some of them were terribly mangled.

Flagman Quinlan went back to the telegraph office at McDonough and gave the news and then fell in a faint.

Only three women were on the train. Two escaped. It is presumed that the other perished, but the body had not been found.

HON. T. H. CLARK.

He Addresses a Nice Audience at the First Presbyterian Church.

The intense heat caused very many persons to absent themselves from the various churches yesterday, and to seek after some cool and comfortable retreat. Despite the heat, however, an intensely interested audience listened to Hon. T. H. Clark, as he made clear many points in connection with the laws supposed to control and hold in check the great evil known as the liquor traffic. He went on to show the advances which have been made in the line of temperance in this state, and insisted that there existed no grounds for despondency on the part of lovers of temperance and clean life; but, on the contrary, they have great cause for rejoicing.

Clark believes in the utter prohibition of the manufacture and sale of intoxicants; but he also believes that, in case this desired end cannot be reached at this time, in hitting the hydra-headed serpent of the still at any and every point which can be reached, trusting Almighty God for results. He further believes that money was made use of by the liquor traffic in defeating the Clark bill in the senate, and he is backed up in this sentiment and belief by a great mass of the voters of Ohio, men who will make their votes count against the liquor traffic at some future time.

Rev. Baker followed Mr. Clark in a brief and incisive speech, during which he made the assertion that one of the representatives of the people, a Methodist and the superintendent of an Epworth League, voted against the Clark bill. Rev. Clark Crawford, pastor of the First M. E. church, was seated just in front of the speaker, and he showed his abhorrence of the said recreant Epworth Leaguer by twice repeating the word "shame, shame." Dr. Clark Crawford is a clean cut Christian minister, and we feel honored in doing battle under his command. The writer knows another member of the Epworth League who affiliates with and makes excuses for the saloon, and holds the fellow in supreme contempt. Such men have no right in the ranks of truly Christian men, and the sooner they are banished from the church fold, and forbidden entrance thereto until they are truly repentant and ask God for forgiveness, the better for the church they have so disgraced. The day for sickly sentimentalism has gone by, and the Master demands that His followers shall show their colors.

REV. GILBERT RAYNOR.

He Addresses a Crowded House at the Second Presbyterian Church.

Rev. Dr. Raynor in his sermon at the Second Presbyterian church yesterday morning took as his text "Thy Kingdom Come." He applied this text to the temperance work now being agitated, and told of the effective work being done by the Anti-Saloon league. The league has headquarters at Columbus and has a force of about 20 capable men who are constantly applying themselves to aid the cause of temperance and temperance legislation in the state. The question is being constantly agitated. He said that about one-third of the townships of the state now are dry, greatly through the work of the league. The league also has a law enforcing department, whose object is to see that laws are enforced in places where the saloons have been voted out, and have made many successful prosecutions against lawbreakers.

Don't Borrow.

Only the other day a Boston firm of sharks charged a man $5 for making out the mortgage on a loan of $10 and then charged him interest. A Lowell shark recently loaned a man $20 and charged him $3 for making out the mortgage, and every month he causes the man to sign a new mortgage and charges him $3 each time, besides the regular rate of interest, thus bringing the interest up to $100 per cent per annum. The several mortgages are not recorded since the first one, and every $3 the borrower pays goes into the lender's pocket.—Boston Traveler.

BERLIN, June 25.—An unfavorable impression was caused here by the attempts of the Russian press to create distrust of Germany in connection with the Chinese question. The inspired German organs insisted that Berlin did not oppose the plans of St. Petersburg in the Chinese empire, and that the future will clearly demonstrate Germany's perfect accord with Russia in Asia.

The Traces of the Beasts.

On every side in the Malay wilds the traces of the beasts—which here live as secluded, as safe from molestation, as did their ancestors in pre-Adamite days—are visible on tree trunk, on beaten game path and on the yielding clay at the drinking places by the hurrying stream. Here a belt of mud nine feet from the ground shows that an elephant has rubbed his itching back against the rough bark of a tree, and, see, coarse hairs are still sticking in the hardened clay. There a long sharp scratch repeated at regular intervals marks the passing of a rhinoceros. Here again is the pad mark of a tiger, barely an hour old, and the pitted tracks of deer of all sizes and varieties surround the deeply punched holes which are the footsteps of an elephant.—Blackwood's.

Why speak of the lovely painted trilliums, with their three daintily crinkled petals, streaked with rose purple? says Bradford Torrey in The Atlantic. One after another I gathered them (pulled them, to speak with poetic literalness), each fresher and handsomer than the one before it till the white stems made a handful.

"Oh," said a man on a hotel piazza as I returned, "I see you have nosebleed." I was putting my hand to my pocket, wondering why I should have been taken so childishly, when it came over me what he meant. He was looking at the trilliums and explained, in answer to a question, that he had always heard them called nosebleed. Somewhere, then—I omitted to inquire where—this is their "vulgar" name. In Franconia the people call them Benjamins, which has a pleasant Biblical sound—better than nosebleed, at all events—though, to my thinking, trillium is preferable to either of them both for sound and for sense.
